Measured in terms of guests, and elaborateness in decoration, music and refreshments, the reception given by Mrs. George T. Cochran and Mrs. J. H. Burman at the Cochran home on Second street Wednesday last stands out as one of the foremost social events of the week.

Taking advantage of nature's colors, the hostesses adopted autumn leaves and the old-time favorite fall blooms, such as marigold, as the means of converting the spacious rooms into delightful surroundings for an event of this kind. The decorative scheme was extremely pleasing.

While the guests, of whom there were a large number, were enjoying the hospitality of the hostesses, Andrew Loney's orchestra added additional charm to the occasion with a program of high quality music.

Mrs. Chas. E. Cochran, of Portland, who is visiting at the Cochran home, was the honor guest for the afternoon. The dining room was presided over by a group of charming assistants to the hostesses, namely, Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Mrs. Lee Wardick, Mrs. Dan McCellan, Mrs. Chas. Rubenkamp and Mrs. Lee Staley.

In the reception room the hostesses had able assistance from Mrs. A. H. Hunter, Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, Mrs. W. S. Parker, Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. John Thiesen, Mrs. Grace Dennis and Miss Margaret Anson.

Twenty-seven guests were present and Miss Virginia received many beautiful presents. Pink and white asters were used as decorations, and the refreshments of brick ice cream and cake were also carried out in the color scheme of pink and white.

Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Dell Kennedy and Mrs. J. E. Loyd.

Last Tuesday found a wedding anniversary in the George Meserve home, and the occasion was remembered by many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Meserve. Taking the Meserve household entirely by surprise, friends bounced down upon them and took possession, even unto the serving of refreshments, which they brought with them.

The occasion was indeed a pleasant one for all concerned, especially the Meserve family. A beautiful set of hand-painted cups and saucers was presented Mr. and Mrs. Meserve as a token of esteem from those present. Cards were played during the evening.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. H. H. Hanna Friday afternoon at her home, 1002 H avenue.

This was the regular meeting of the society and Miss Hulda Anderson, who is secretary of the Young People's Synodical Society of Oregon, and who recently returned from Portland, from the annual meeting, gave a brief report on some of the most interesting features of the convention. Mrs. Hanna, who had just returned from the Presbyterian meeting at Baker, gave a very interesting report to the society.

There was a very large attendance, there being several guests besides the regular members. Autumn leaves and autumn flowers were used as decorations.

Mrs. Lynn Wright favored those present with several beautiful piano selections.

At the close of the afternoon, an appetizing three-course luncheon was served. Those assisting Mrs. Hanna in serving were Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. C. E. Anderson and Mrs. H. P. Lewis.

The grand lodge to meet with a Washington committee and discuss the means of obtaining funds for the building, which will cost in the neighborhood of $120,000 and will be situated at Vancouver, Wash.

It will take another day for the and lodge of British Sisters of the State of Oregon to wind up its session. Principal business accomplished by the Pythian women yesterday was the annual election of officers as follows: Doctor Hunt, Al grand chief; Florence Rankin, grand warden; Colly Hall, grand secretary; and Mrs. J. H. Allen, grand treasurer.

The M. L. A. of Mt. Glenn met last night at their Amusement Hall. They were visited by the state president, Sam Andrews, of La Grande, and during the business session, R. F. Allen was chosen president of the Mt. Glenn organization.

There was a large attendance, and after a program which took place in the early part of the evening, games were played by the children, while the older people danced.

Refreshments consisting of chocolate and vanilla ice cream and doughnuts were served at the close of what every one termed a most enjoyable time.

The members of the F. A. F. Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. John Askin on Friday afternoon of this week when they met at her home, 1206 Penn avenue.

This was the regular meeting of the club, Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman carrying off the honors and Mrs. J. E. Caldwell receiving consolation.

Autumn leaves and asters were used in profusion about the rooms as decorations.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of a pleasant afternoon.

The club is planning to meet with Mrs. H. T. Eaton in two weeks.

The I. D. S. Relief Society's bazaar next week, prompted by the need of refurbishing the fabric store auditorium, is taking on a decided social tinge. Because the public is solidly behind the movement inasmuch as the public has so liberal access to the auditorium for civic purposes, there is a disposition to arrange social events of the coming week so as not to conflict with the bazaar given by the I. D. S. ladies. The atmosphere of a bazaar is always social anyway, and the city-wide interest and support being given to this occasion will mean that the bazaar will be the gathering place of many ladies.

The La Grande Council No. 1566 of the Knights of Columbus held installation of officers October 11, which was conducted by Dist. Dep. Francis J. Ryan of Ontario, Oregon. The following assumed the responsibility of their offices: Grand Knight, E. J. Donohue; Deputy Grand Knight, Ben Gassett; Chancellor, H. M. Maloney; Warden, Hector Melnick; Financial Secretary, J. J. Murray; Treasurer, J. H. Peare; Advocate, Martin King; Trustee, Frank Bostes; Inside Guard, J. Redondo; Outside Guard, Ben Kaplan; Chaplain, Rev. A. P. Looser.

The Baker Lodge held installation of their officers Thursday night, and a number of La Grande Lodge members were present. District Deputy Francis J. Ryan also conducted the Baker lodge installation.

Mrs. E. L. Shepherd entertained this week at her home, 2103 Third street, for her little daughter, Virginia, in honor of her seventh birthday anni-
