Just Thirty Years Ago in the Grande Ronde Valley

October 14th, 1892.
The County Fair this year was said to be one of the most successful ever given. The closing days found a banner attendance. Friday was school children's day at the fair grounds and to say the least the children were well represented. Early in the forenoon the exhibition on driving horses took place, followed by the cattle exhibits and a sale of thoroughbred stock in the afternoons. The racing program was run off with great success. Several close races started the events. Wednesday, the closing day, found two especially interesting races. The weather continued favorably throughout the week and nothing occurred to mar the most successful termination of the fair. Over $2000 was paid in cash premiums to exhibitors and the persons in the various speed trials amounted to nearly $4000. A considerable amount of the premium fruit and vegetables was shipped to Portland and will be placed on exhibition during the remainder of the Industrial Fair.

At the October meeting of the county court several matters of importance were attended to. The salary of the County School Superintendent was fixed at $1200 per annum, dated from October 1. The framework of the Alliance Flouring Mill is rapidly nearing completion. J. R. Thorsen and J. A. Matait are in attendance at the grand lodge of the K. of P. at Eugene this week. Snow has made its appearance on the Eagle Creek mountains and will probably remain on the ground until next spring. The fools are not all dead yet. A young man from Toronto will attempt to cross Niagara Gorge on the 2-4 inch rope this week. Hon. W. R. Ellis has almost recovered from the injuries he received on the Condon stage line last May. To say the least the Congressman has had a severe time, being confined to his bed over two months. The fight between the bull dog and the bear which took place last Saturday night resulted in a draw. Reubin was unable to deal a knockout blow, although he punished his adversary to a considerable extent. The frosty night which caused the troublesome house fly to turn up his toes have at last arrived. The court made the tax levy for the year 1922 without waiting for the board of equalization thought it best to complete its work and avoid the complications of last year. The levy was as follows: For general county purposes, 10 mills; for contingent county purposes, including indigent, 3 mills; for school purposes, 5 mills; for coal funds, 2 mills, and for state, 5 mills.

Fred Nozine, the cattle king of Union county, has begun an attachment suit against J. G. Shirley, the wheat king. Shirley's farm implements and vast amount of livestock and even the piano in the house have been seized upon by attachment. Nozine and Shirley were formerly partners in the farm and stock business, but the partnership business was dissolved about three years ago. Since then, both have been extensive operators in farming. Shirley this year had a wheat yield of 2400 acres.

The Power of Saved Money

It is not the young man's earnings that put him through college; that keep him until he becomes independent; that set him up in business. It is the money the old man saved.

The power of saved money lies behind every farm, every industry, every business—every activity that goes to make progress. It is the mainspring of the happy home; the secret of independent old age.
