ENJOY BAKER'S HOSPITALITY

Odd Fellows of Union Make Trip to Baker and Social Event of Extra Importance Follows.

UNION, Oct. 17.—The city schools were closed the last three days of last week while the teachers attended the institute in Baker.

Last Friday evening seventeen members of the local Odd Fellows lodge motored over to Baker and visited with Baker Lodge No. 25. They took over with them, George W. Lagrone who was initiated in the mysteries of the first degree of the Baker team. After the degree work the visitors were served light lunch and shown a very pleasant time by the Baker Odd Fellows. The Union men returned home about midnight after inviting the Baker boys to visit with them sometime in the near future. Those who made the trip were Scarborough, Hanson, Belder, Connor, Wiglesworth, Rohrer, Elliot, Kluttsch, Lawrence, Hogarty, Reuter, Lindsay, Cine, Van Hunter, and one or two others. Four members of Covo Lodge, Little Connor, Edwards and Richards also made the trip. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all who went over.

Mrs. B. S. Bellus and her daughter, Mrs. Fay Stuber, were shopping in Baker last Thursday. Ed Castor was a visitor in Baker last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Hugh Huron and wife passed through Union last Saturday on their way home from a visit in Sanger. The Hurons motored over

Ouch! My Back! Rub Lumbago Pain Away

Rub Backache away with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, neuralgia or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin. Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

to the latter town. Rev. B. S. Hughes, pastor of the Presbyterian church attended part of the teachers' institute at Baker last week. The Joseph football team came down to Union last Saturday to lock horns with Morgan's raiders on the local field. The local boys had the game clinched from the start and at no time were there much likelihood of the visitors scoring. Union secured three touchdowns in the first half and two more in the second, which with two points added by the efforts after the touchdowns totaled a score of 22 to 0. The Joseph eleven, though unable to score, put up a good fight throughout the game and earned the good will of the spectators by their game playing and also by their clean sportsmanship. The contest was exceptionally free from any roughness.

Several of Union's sportsmen were out bright and early Sunday morning to try their hand at pleasant shopping.

According to the local Republican there are as yet no candidates who have announced themselves for the offices of mayor, councilman, recorder or treasurer in the city election soon to be held. Four councilmen are to be elected, and as far as can be found out none of the retiring members are seeking re-election.

Mrs. Schuster is here from Portland visiting with her son, Dr. Stephen Schuster. Mrs. Schuster arrived in Union Saturday.

W. W. Stevens made a business trip to La Grande last Wednesday.

Rev. Reuter, who was pastor at the local M. E. church 21 years ago and is now here visiting with his son, Eugene Reuter, occupied the pulpit in the same church Sunday morning. The aged minister who has been placed on the retired list, but is still preaching almost every Sunday, will remain here for a few days and then go to St. Louis where he will visit a brother for a couple of weeks and then go on east as far as Washington.

Mrs. Pearl Shaw and her two daughters, Vera and Marie, were in La Grande last Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Shaw's brother.

South Main street is being improved by the replacing of several worn-out crosswalks.

E. L. Caldwell spent the week in Portland, where he went as a delegate from the local commercial club to attend the meeting of the state Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. W. A. Terrell and two children left for Cleveland last Wednesday to join Mr. Terrell and another son who had gone on to the new home several weeks earlier. Mr. Terrell is connected with the federal government work in Ohio. Bert Wilkes, who has been a resident of Union for several months in connection with the bridge work on the highway, has shipped his household goods to Portland and will make that place his headquarters in the future.
