THE BUSINESS SHIRT

THERE'S a big difference between a business shirt and an outing shirt, though many men seem not to notice it. The office, the business day, the time that you devote to your material interests is no domain for the exploitation of the soft and mushy in collars and shirts. Being well dressed does help one in business. Our Arrow Business Shirts will reveal the new things in both plain and pleated bosoms with the right thing in cuffs to set off the suit to the best advantage.

Business at Baker—Sam Andrews spent yesterday in Baker looking after some business matters. He drove to Baker and upon his return stated, "The roads are of the best quality and the only kick I have is that the dust is a little bit thick."

Fitzgerald's Leave—Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald and their son Clark, left a few days ago for Seattle, where they will spend a few days then going on to Lewiston and other Idaho points. They are making the trip by auto and expect to be gone for a few weeks.

Scoutmasters to Meet—The scoutmasters of the La Grande Boy Scouts will meet with the local scout commissioner this evening in the Y. M. C. A. building at 7:15 o'clock. The main object of the meeting will be to standardize the second class Boy Scout tests in this locality.

Visiting Here—W. T. Plowhead, president of the State Bank of Middleton, Idaho, accompanied by Mrs. Plowhead and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Plowhead, cashier and assistant cashier of the same institution, motored to La Grande Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Bantz of Seventh street. Mrs. Plowhead and Mrs. Bantz are sisters.

losing up Business Matters—"Bill" Kennedy of Portland and Earl Hanna of Enterprise, both representatives of the Wallawa Milling and Grain company, are spending the day in La Grande attending to matters pertaining to the business of that company in connection with the inland motor company.

Troy Visitor—J. S. Roberts, who makes his home at Troy, which is in Wallawa county, and is described as being a postoffice on the Grande Ronde river, fifty miles north of Enterprise, the county seat, and 45 miles north at Wallawa, the banking point, arrived in La Grande yesterday and is spending a short time in the city on business. Mr. Roberts is a guest at the Savoy during his visit in La Grande.

Long Delivery—Chase Bohnenkamp has recently returned from the Rainbow mines where he delivered a new semi-truck model Oldsmobile to C. E. Pritchell and incidentally established quite a record for long distance delivery in this locality. Lynn Bohnenkamp went to Portland last week and drove the car back to La Grande due to delayed deliveries that are common at present, and upon reaching La Grande Chase drove the car to the Rainbow mines, about one hundred miles away. The total distance covered in delivering the one car is just about four hundred miles. The new owner was pleased with the machine and the condition it was in.

try, and who are to present the musical comedy "Cox and Box" in the local Lyceum Course were recently seen on the Profile Golf Course in the White Mountains of New Hampshire in company with Dr. C. E. Atwood, the neurologist and Governor Channing H. Cox of Massachusetts. The group made a jolly and boisterous "foursome," but only a few of those playing on the links were aware that all four of the golfers were famous men. William Wade Hinshaw made his reputation in Grand Opera circles but recently he hit upon an innovation in male quartet work and has been personally training a company of four young artists in the musical comedy "Cox and Box," or "The Long Lost Brothers," which is already known the country over as one long laugh from beginning to end. The music to the farce was composed by the celebrated Sir Arthur Sullivan, who has produced the well known operas such as "Uranore," "The Mikado," "Pirates of Penzance," "The Gondoliers" and others, all of which William Wade Hinshaw has produced at the Park Theatre in New York.

The real quality of the Lyceum which is being arranged for Baker the coming winter is only beginning to be appreciated by the people of that city and that fact is being shown by the sale of season tickets in advance of the first number which takes place next week, October 21st when Evelyn Scotney of the Metropolitan Opera, Maximilian Rose, the violinist and Elvin Schmitt pianist will present a program.
