GREAT ADVANCE INTEREST IN BIG SELZNICK PICTURE

Hailed as a hurricane of melodramatic comedy, the showing of "Reported Missing" at the Arcade Theatre starting Thursday is eagerly anticipated by picture fans who like their pictures, full of thrills, romance and laughter. Owon Moore is starred in this production which deals with the attempt of a Far Eastern capitalist to obtain possession of a huge fleet of ships owned by an American shipping company. The high lights of the picture are a race between a hydroplane and a hydroaeroplane, a shipwreck, a rough and tumble fight in the villain's house, a series of comedy scenes made only as Henry Lehrman, master of laughter, knows how to make them, and the gown worn by the statuesque Nina Naldi and the flapper like Pauline Garon.

"Reported Missing" is a moving picture that moves every minute. It is crowded full of action and excitement. It assays a real, honest to goodness laugh a minute. It is one of those amusement mediums which lift people from the dull drab of everyday existence into a world of laughter and romance. Tom Wilson, as a valet, gives the comedy performance of his career. The scenes in which he attempts to wreak vengeance on a group of Oriental schemers operating against his master are masterpieces of comedy. Tom surely wields a wicked razor. He could trim the Three Musketeers, single handed by just shaking his weapon in front of their faces.

AT SHERRYS LAST DAY

Gareth Hughes scored a triumph with the patrons of the Sherry Theatre yesterday when the initial presentations of his newly released Metro picture, "I Can Explain," were given. Edgar Franklin, who wrote "I Can Explain," under the title of "Stay Home," in the Argosy-All Story Magazine, has supplied an ideal screen story full of adventurous excitement and rollicking humor.

Gareth Hughes plays the role of Jimmy Berry, junior partner in the firm of Dawson & Berry, who plan to open a branch in a South American port. Jimmy finds himself in a mess of complications when he is accused by his partner of attempting to take his wife, Dorothy Dawson, from him. It is at this point that the explanations begin, but they do not end until all three have reached South America, where life is just one surprise and explanation after another. But it's a rattling good fun and in addition there are thrills and excitement and a climax that tags off the whole plot in splendid fashion.

In addition to Mr. Hughes the cast in "I Can Explain," includes Grace Darmond, Bartine Burkett, Herbert Hayes, Victor (Slim) Patel, Harry Loraine, Nelson McDowell and many others. It is a George D. Baker production for S-L (Arthur Sawyer and Herbert Lubin), released by Metro.

Also showing "Pop Turtle's Movie Queen," two reel comedy.

Vote 314 x Yes

The purpose of the compulsory public school attendance bill is to insure the instruction of all Oregon children of grammar school age in a common language, a common history and common ideals, in the belief that American unity shall be promoted, American ideals safeguarded and American institutions perpetuated.

This bill is proposed because its supporters believe that only by universal education of our children on standard and uniform lines can these things be achieved.

This bill proposes no religious restrictions. It contemplates no limitation of the right of the parent to teach religion to his child in his own way and according to his own belief. It raises no issue of religious difference.

This bill is purely a measure to insure that all children by attending the public schools shall be taught alike during their grammar school years, so that their outlook may grow to be a unified outlook for the common weal and for their country and its institutions.

To make an all-American nation we must have all-American instruction of our children along recognized standard lines. Ignorance of American ideals and institutions and language is the greatest menace to them, because those who do not understand them properly do not support them.

Mummy Cloth.
 The extraordinary durability of the ancient Egyptian mummy cloth is believed to be due to the fact that it was finished with a vegetable blue derived from the African locust-bean tree.
