SOCIETY

The Kaffee Klatch will meet Friday evening at the Country club. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jones and Mrs. Grace Molitor will entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hunter, who have been in Boise, Idaho, for the past few days, are expected to return to La Grande today. They are making the trip by auto.

Mrs. R. M. Crawford, pianist at Sherry's, left Sunday for Portland where she will take a post-graduate course of study with the Elliston-White Conservatory of Music. Upon completing the course she will return to La Grande and resume her position at Sherry's.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Starveant of Fruitdale was the scene of a very delightful party Wednesday evening, October 11, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Oldenberg, who are leaving Sunday for Santa Rosa, Calif. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Oldenberg came from far and near to spend the evening with them. The Oldenbergs have lived in Fruitdale a number of years and their many friends deeply regret their leaving. A part of the evening was spent in dancing. At 11:30 a two-course luncheon was served, after which all wished Mr. and Mrs. Oldenberg health, happiness and prosperity in their new home.

The Junior West Minister Circle was entertained by Mrs. E. P. Moorman, who is patroness of the circle, at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home, 1164 Spring, on Saturday.

Seventeen members were in attendance, with three invited guests, the guests being Mrs. F. E. Oxner, Mrs. William Crosby Ross and Mrs. O. E. Moran.

Cosmetic, scarlet flax and autumn leaves were used very artistically and appropriately as decorations.

After an enjoyable time at luncheon, a program was given by the girls whose study for the year is India. Mission and Architecture was given by Miss Verda Res Smith and Isabelle Miller and were accompanied by slides of Indian scenes and samples of architecture of India. The girls showed a surprising amount of understanding of the subjects.

At the business meeting held directly after the program, new members and officers were elected. The new officers for the year were Lorraine Pierce, president; Kathryn Moran, vice president; Euphemia Wallace, secretary; Isabelle Miller, treasurer; Eleanor Cleaver, chairman of the social committee, and Verda Res Smith, chairman of the program committee.

The Ladies Aid of the Zion English Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Jean Tovey at her home near the brick yards. A large attendance is requested.

Women of Mooseheart Legion will meet at the home of Mrs. J. L. Kline, 2000 Cove avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock for the social meeting. Mrs. Kline will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Fisher and Mrs. Marjorie Collins. All members are urged to attend. The afternoon will be spent at needlework for the bazaar.

The invitations to the first of the series of dances to be given at the Country club are out, and, according to the enthusiastic response, there will be good attendance. The first of the series will be given Monday night.

STANDS ALL DAY IN RAIN
TO SHOW HE IS "FOOL"
WATKINS, Ill., Oct. 18. (Special)—Robert E. O'Brien, pastor of an independent flock in Zion City Wednesday had complied with the terms of an offer from Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion—$5,000 if he will stand in front of a newspaper office all day to show the people what a fool he is. Rain beat upon Mr. O'Brien most of the day, but he held his post from sunrise to sunset. He said he would give the award to Zion City poor.
