carry no extra charge because of their beauty and superior quality. It seems wise to say this because the distinction that comes of careful selection often gives the impression of expensiveness. Nor is there any extra charge for our exceptional fitting service that assumes full responsibility for your complete satisfaction.

Sometimes poetry describes better than prose. Monday, Halloween, the will find the young people gathered at the M. L. A. amusement hall where:

The night when ghosts and goblins roam, With groans and sighs, is near, Black cats, white owls, old witches grin, Then comes to give you cheer, The L. D. S. Amusement Hall will be a rendezvous. And when you're there without a doubt, Your fence you'll surely lose, You, to the brightly lighted hall, Will be guided by the ghost, And there with all her characters Mother Goose will be your host.

The Ladies of Westminster Guild were delightfully entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman, with Miss Edith Pechlin, Miss Hazel Hinkle, and Mrs. Mossman acting as hostesses.

The evening was educational, India being the general subject. Mrs. Lynn Bohlenkamp and Mrs. W. C. Ross gave very interesting talks upon this subject.

Miss Fredricka Schillo rendered a very beautiful vocal solo, "Hindustan A Hindia." Mrs. Robert Eakin presented some very interesting slides on India, and Miss Hattie Short and Miss Hulda Anderson each gave an excellent report of the Synodical meeting of the Presbyterian church held at Portland recently which they attended.

A party will be given this evening at Eagles' hall by the Catholic young ladies sodality, assisted by the Knights of Columbus. Cards will be played from eight to ten, and there will be dancing from ten to twelve. Laney's orchestra will play.

Refreshments will be served at ten o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

The Kaffee Klubb will meet Friday afternoon at the Country club at 2 o'clock. Mrs. G. L. Larsson and Mrs. A. C. Hampton will entertain.

The Litaaki Campfire was organized under the guardianship of Mrs. Ritter. The following officers were elected: Eleanore Cleaver, president; Dean Wright, vice president; and Grace Cullen, secretary and treasurer. Daisy Hollos, pianist and vocal leader.

The first assembly of the Greenwood Junior High School was held last Friday morning. The program was started with much "pop" under the able leadership of Prin. R. A. Wilkerson, who led off with one of the school yells. Other features of the program were: Assembly singing—conducted by Mrs. Green; Reading, "When a Feller Doves and Out"—Willie Watkins; Song, "Lullaby Time"—Blanche Rice, Louise Vaughn, Edna Daniels and Ruby Gardner; Instrumental Solo, "Spinning Song"—Berneice Cass; Recitation, "Sundae"—Irma Spiker; Guitar Solo—Ruby Gardner; Solo Dance—Gertrude Stam.

The program was so thoroughly enjoyed that they expect to hold one each Friday morning.

day evening at the home of Mrs. Pierre. Five tables of cards were in action during the evening, with Mrs. Will Mitchell of Island City winning the ladies' prize and Joe Harrison the gentlemen's prize.

A two course luncheon was served at the evening's close, including elder and doughnuts. This was the first meeting of the year for the club and the members are looking forward to a great many enjoyable social times in the future.

The Central Parent Teachers Association will meet in the Central school Friday afternoon, October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Fitzgerald and sons Pat and Clark, returned yesterday from an enjoyable trip through Walla Walla, Dayton, Lewiston and other points. While away they spent some time visiting with Mrs. Fitzgerald's brother, Robert Coleman.

The weather was good all through their trip and the roads could not have been better. However, they were glad to get home again and as Mrs. Fitzgerald said, "We couldn't find any place we liked better than La Grande."

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Church have gone to Portland to attend the wedding of Miss Cameron, a sister of Mrs. Church. Miss Cameron has a host of friends in La Grande who wish her every happiness.

A notice has just been received of the marriage of Miss Nell Norset of La Grande and Hilbert H. Rowton of Des Moines, Iowa, which took place in the court house in Des Moines on Tuesday, October 17.

If our service station burned down we'd get the insurance. If burglars stole our cash, we could borrow some. But if we lost that part of our business called GOOD WILL, we could get it back again only through months, or possibly years, of the hardest kind of work.
