Nature-Painted Grass.

The greenest grass in the world is what visitors say of the lawn in Denver, after they find out that the verdant-green velvet appearance is not some lucky joke of gardeners to fool tourists, but is due to the action of the mineral salts in the soil.

Mrs. Adelina Ottero Warren has won the Republican nomination for Congress at Albuquerque, N. M. She's making a race on a platform of strict enforcement of the Volstead law.

William Fox's second screen version of Rudyard Kipling's famous poem, "The Vampire," comes to the Arcade Theatre Monday, under the title "A Fool There Was." This time we find Estelle Taylor in the role made famous on the screen. In the supporting cast are Lewis Stone, Irene Rich, Mariel Dury, Marjorie Bush, Wallace MacDonald and others.

AT SHERRY'S TO-DAY

"Mr. Barnes of New York," which may be seen at the Sherry Theatre, for two days, commencing to-day. This is the tale of a Corsican vendetta, in which an American becomes the instrument of fate and prevents a cruel murder.

Tom Moore, the star of "Mr. Barnes of New York," has a gratifying role in which his genial humor and comely sense is given true expression. Besides, he is called upon to reveal a deeper emotional quality, when impending tragedy calls it forth.

"Those who have seen the stage version of "Mr. Barnes of New York," remember the many thrilling incidents that made this melodrama one of the most popular plays of the times. The Goldenwyn organization has been to it that none of the thrills have been lost; and judging from the cast, which includes, besides Mr. Moore, such sterling players as Naomi Childers, Anna Lehr, Sydney Ainsworth and Otto Hoffman, the production will be a notable addition to the many excellent photoplays recently made by the Goldenwyn organization.

Also Allen Howell in "Good Night Nurse."
