Mr. and Mrs. Allen Trollinger returned home this morning after spending the past several days visiting friends and relatives in Portland and Seattle, also attending the O. A. C. and U. of W. football game in Seattle last Saturday.

Lodging in City—

Manager J. P. Lottridge of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power company, came down from Baker last evening to look after the business of the company at this point.

Went to Pendleton—

Clifford Abbott, captain of the La Grande football team, accompanied by three members of the squad, Lawrence and Howard Kerr and Dallas Jacobson, left for Pendleton this morning on No. 17. The remainder of the team left about noon in car for the Round-Up city.

Here from Nebraska—

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Robertson, who live at Auburn, Nebraska, arrived in La Grande this morning on No. 23 for a week's visit with their son, C. L. Robertson, who is employed at the Pioneer hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, accompanied by their son, will go to Walla Walla in a few days for a brief visit there with friends and relatives.

Boosting the Elks Club Dance—

Ben Withers, postmaster and L. E. Jordan, mayor of Enterprise, spent yesterday afternoon in La Grande telling the Elks what a good time the Branch Line Elks would have tomorrow night when the magnificent new club house at the head of Walla Walla lake will be formally opened to the public. Many from La Grande will attend and the Elks are looking forward to one of the best times ever given by that order in a social way.

Night Drive to Canyon—

John Marpherson, of Marpherson, Bakery, started last evening in his machine for Portland, where he will remain a few days and return with Mrs. Marpherson, who has been in that city on a visit. When John left he had his lights burning brightly and his dog accompanied him. "I am driving at night for the reason that I like the solitude of the country; I like to hear the wind whistle through the canyons and an occasional coyote bark his lonely bark. Then, besides, the roads are good and why not drive at night?"

Met Two Buck Deer—

The irony of fate overtook George Nesbitt yesterday morning. While driving the Snodgrass & Zimmerman house over the mountains between Pendleton and La Grande two big buck deer stepped out in the highway and stood in the glory of the headlights. "There I sat," said George, "with more or less tremor already shaking me from the fact that I was riding in a deer season at a school in the morning in a lonely country only to have that tremor develop into the buck-aroo when I saw those two fine fellows and had no gun."

Phy in Portland—

J. P. Phy, of La Grande, is registered at the Imperial. Mr. Phy was formerly judge of Union county and aided in getting the road program under way in that section. Stripped of the cares of office, Judge Phy is now dealing in real estate. He has been consulting with Judge T. M. Crawford and other Union county Democrats in Portland on the political situation in that county. Despite the heavy rain which Portland has experienced, the weather is still dry in the Grande Ronde valley.

Trombsy in Rose City—

Kamela, which natives translate as meaning "top of the mountain," is the postoffice address of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trombsy, who are at the Imperial. Kamela is on the hump of the blue mountains, and because of this grade, heavy mountain engines are required to pull freight and passenger trains over it. The old Oregon Trail runs through Kamela and contractors are now at work constructing the grade in that section. This is the last section on the old Oregon Trail to be graded. The job will be completed and the surface will be a level road. Traffic will have to take a detour—Oregonian.

Mrs. Mabel Francis

"Taulas helped me back to good health two years ago and I am still feeling fine," recently said Mrs. Mabel I. Francis, recently returned resident of 628 S. Linwood Ave., Baltimore, Maryland.

"Before taking the medicine I suffered from a nervous breakdown and was in an awful condition. I scarcely had strength and energy to handle a broom and my housework was drudgery to me."

"The first bottle of Taulas made such a wonderful improvement in my condition that I was both surprised and delighted. So I stuck to it and a few bottles built me up ten pounds and made me feel as if I had ever had a sick day. My health has been fine ever since."

Taulas is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.

Carrying Their Message. While sitting on the steps one evening my little girl saw some horses coming from the sales stables labeled sold. She came running into the house, crying excitedly: "Mother! I just saw some horses going down the street with their tails wrapped in paper and a note on their backs!"—Milwaukee Sentinel.
