married Saturday afternoon, October 21, at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. G. H. Quigley officiating.

Mrs. Harvey Bay entertained the members of the Alpha club at her home on Cedar street Thursday afternoon of this week. The club prize of the afternoon was won by Mrs. Walter Leisman, and Mrs. A. Murphy received the guest prize. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Reynolds Wednesday evening, November 1.

The members of the Thursday Bridge club were entertained by Mrs. George T. Cochran this week at her home on Second street. There were three tables of bridge in action during the afternoon. Mrs. M. B. Donahue receiving highest honors.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon. Women of Monmouth Legion will hold a bazaar at Eagles' hall Monday, October 29, 1922, which will start at 10 o'clock a. m. They will have a nice line of handwork, novelties, aprons, towels, pillow slips, baby things, also a good many other things. They will have a home made candy and a cooked food booth, and will raffle several home made quilts. There is also to be a big fish pond which will delight the kiddies. A dance will close the evening.

A number of La Grande's society people left this afternoon for the head of Wallowa lake where they will take part in the dedication and opening of the new Branch Line Elks' club house.

Mrs. J. J. Carr will entertain the Wednesday Bridge club Wednesday afternoon, November 1, at the Country club.

The Lucky 13 Bridge club will meet with Mrs. F. L. Lilly next Thursday, November 2.

Mrs. R. T. Eaton entertained the members of the P. A. F. club Friday afternoon of this week at her home on Second street.

Four tables of Bridge were in action. Mrs. R. L. Pauch receiving high score. An excellent luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the afternoon.

The ladies of the Parkdale club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Ella Rynearson Wednesday, October 25, with Mrs. Claire Scriver, Mrs. Buckett, Mrs. Eckley and Mrs. Rynearson acting as hostesses.

The home was tastefully decorated in autumn leaves and everything in keeping with Halloween. After a short business session the compulsory school bill was discussed. Mrs. Riddle, Mrs. Wikerson, and Mrs. Condit giving some very interesting views on the subject. Visitors present were Mrs. Tait, Mrs. Peckler, Mrs. Condit, Mrs. Griener, Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. Anderson. During the social hour an elaborate luncheon was served by the hostess and the meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Henry Young. Mrs. J. B. Stoddard will assist Mrs. Young in her duties as hostess.

Announcements have been made that on Monday evening, November 13th, a party will be given at the Country club by the following people: Miss Bortha Walsinger, Miss Nell Grisham, Miss Imogene Russell, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly and Leo F. French, Fred E. Kiddle, C. R. Harding and Ralph Huron.

The first of the winter series of Country club parties was held at the club house last Monday evening and was unanimously voted a great success. The hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Press, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lynch, Mr. C. W. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Birnie and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parker.

The party just given was undoubtedly the largest and best attended of any of the Country club dances since the one on the opening night. Under the new plan the success of these parties already seem to be assured and all that were present are looking forward to the next one. The next dance will be given in November by Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Watkins, Dr. W. T. Phyl, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ingie, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Roberts, Mrs. George Stoddard, Mr. Harry Priest, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Stoddard and Mr. T. H. Crawford. The date will be announced in the near future.

Under the able management of Mrs. Burbridge and Mrs. Scott the Country club is rapidly taking its place as the social center of the community. So popular has it become to entertain and dine at the club house that arrangements must be made a considerable time ahead in order to be sure of a date. The Country club is surely proving a great success and fully up to the expectation of its members.

According to the report of President Charles Wesley Tenney, Miss Leta M. Pierson has been awarded the La Grande high school scholarship for 1922-23. This scholarship amounts to three dollars and is paid in cash, the only condition being that the student must maintain good grades for the first semester, in order to hold the honor for the second half of the year.

Miss Pierson graduated from the La Grande high school with the class of 1922 and, in her senior year, was editor of the yearbook, the school annual. She also took part in the class plays, "Clarence," by Booth Tarkington and the "Christmas Carol," by Charles Dickens. She was a member of the Glee club that rendered the "Love Pirate" of Hawaii and represented La Grande on the debating team that defeated Baker in discussing the question, "Resolved, that the Philippines should be granted their independence." Miss Pierson was a member of the tennis club and played forward on the girls' basketball team.

At Gooding, in addition to her regular college subjects, she is taking special work in piano and voice under Madame Lillie Shang Collins, who has built up a department of music at Gooding college that is well and favorably known throughout the entire inter-mountain country.

The M. J. A. Bee Hive Girls are being congratulated on the success of the Halloween party they gave last Wednesday evening at the M. J. A. hall. Committees had worked for several days to make this party the delightful affair that it proved to be.

The hall was beautifully decorated in black and gold crepe intermingled with black cats, witches and everything that goes to make things ghastly like.

At 8 o'clock 35 couples met and enjoyed a very pleasing hour play (we guess) and listening to school stories. Luncheon was enjoyed from 5 until 11, after which a very delightful Halloween luncheon was served. During the luncheon hour, Jack Hunt, Sr., entertained the young folks with singing which was greatly enjoyed.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shors, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blatt.

On Wednesday afternoon in the Presbyterian house, Pendleton, Rev. G. L. Clark united in marriage Rev. S. Clark and Mrs. Elsie Taylor.

both of La Grande. The father of the groom Robert Clark, a brother Floyd, and the sister Miss Blanche Clark were present, also a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Abbie Thomas of Cove. The party drove over to Pendleton Wednesday morning. Buses from Corvallis, sent by the mother of the groom, were used in decorating the rooms of the house.

The bride wore a gown of blue canton crepe with a corsage of opelia roses. The ring ceremony was read. The wedding march was played by Mrs. G. L. Clark. A buffet luncheon followed the ceremony.

The couple left the following day for Corvallis on their honeymoon. The groom is a thrifty ranchman north of Idaho City where the couple will reside. Mr. Robert Clark accompanied them to Corvallis where he recently purchased property.
