HOW BETTER THAN PILLS?
The question has been asked: In what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

THEATRES

AT SHERRY'S—LAST DAY OF DOUBLE STAR BILL.
Letter-Writing Romance in Gareth Hughes' New Film.

One of the most wholesome and entertaining pictures of the current season was shown yesterday at the Sherry Theatre, where Gareth Hughes is appearing in "Don't Write Letters," his latest Metro release.

Mr. Hughes plays the part of Bobby Jenks, a clerk at the great socks counter of the 14th Street Emporium. Bobby quits his job to enlist when the war comes, and is soon sent to France. Much to his chagrin he is assigned the job of cook when his division arrives there.

When Bobby returns home he realizes the enormity of his falsehoods, and decides to visit as a friend of Bobby Jenks who has, according to the story he invents, been killed in the war. How Bobby's love for Anna grows, and how the authorship of the letters is finally revealed, forms the basis of one of the most wholesome and charming comedies of ordinary folks that has been shown this season.

Also showing "Gold," with Larry Semon, comedy king.

'A FOOL THERE WAS' STRICTLY UP-TO-DATE.

One of the principal reasons for the unusual success of the William Fox production of "A Fool There Was," which begins a three-day engagement at the Arade Theatre today is the fact that motion-picture fans have realized the tremendous advance in cinema making by comparing the new version of the famous drama with the one made years ago. The only similarity is in the title.

A striking realization of the rapid strides of picture production comes immediately to the spectator in watching the unfolding of the 1922 drama. Settings, gorgeous and modern, in taste of refinement; lightings; direction, gowns and clothes; and the general appearance of the new picture make the old drama look like a dime novel with a paper cover.

Based upon Ludger Kipling's famous poem "The Vampire," the adaptation has been made with an eye toward writing it about people of present day life. There is a modern note in the current production which surpasses the usual method of delivering a dramatic theme.

Estelle Taylor and Lewis S. Stone play the principal roles.

'GRANDMA'S BOY' COMING

"Grandma's Boy" lives in Blossom Bend, one of those slow towns where the Tuesday morning express arrives Wednesday afternoon — if Monday's train gets out of the way! Harold Lloyd is "Grandma's Boy," and his Grandma is Mrs. Ann Townsend, a dear old lady 75 years old. Mildred Davis is the boy's sweetheart.

All the humorous, thrilling and amazing troubles that "Grandma's Boy" encounters in five weeks were concocted by Hal Roach, Sam Taylor and Joan Haver, who conspired to make this Lloyd's funniest comedy. Fred Newmeyer directed it, and H. M. Walker contributed his own particular brand of humor to the subtitles.

In other words, all the brains and forces that contribute toward making the Harold Lloyd comedies that Hal Roach produces, for Associated Exhibitors, the best comedies in the world were behind "Grandma's Boy" with 100 per cent effort. The Arade Theatre is happy to announce that Harold Lloyd's newest comedy in five parts will be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

'TURN TO THE RIGHT' NOW ON THE SCREEN
Sherry's, Tomorrow and Wednesday

To the millions of theatre-goers who enjoyed that greatest comedy-drama bit of the speaking stage in John Golden's presentation of "Turn to the Right," by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard, and to the other millions who longed to see it, the news that this universally popular play has been transferred to the screen will prove a joyful notice.

This highlight of the stage characterized as "the play of birth and morals," in its celluloid version is presented by John Golden and Marcus Loew. It is a Rex Ingram production distributed by Metro Pictures, and the youthful director who won international fame for his wonderful screen portrayals of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" and "The Comperting Power" has added further laurels by this latest drama offering at Sherry's Monday and Tuesday.
