

INTEREST IN HOME-COMING WEEK IS BIG

Ralph D. Casey

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 8. (Special)—All outstanding feature of the University of Oregon Homecoming celebration will be a ceremony staged on the afternoon of November 11, in which alumni and former students of colleges and universities other than Oregon will be "adopted" by the state university. The ceremony will be held in the intermission between the halves of the Oregon-Washington State College game.

Many hundreds of college men whose alma maters are in the East, Middle West, South and West, but who make their homes in Oregon will attend the Homecoming exercises. Recently presidents of a number of institutions have suggested to their graduates that they "adopt" the university in the state in which they live. A bond between these collegians and the University of Oregon will be created by means of the adoption ceremony. President P. L. Campbell of the University will welcome the visiting collegians in a short address. They will formally express their interest in the welfare of Oregon and indicate their willingness to be adopted sons and daughters.

The adoption ceremony is only one of several features that will be inaugurated at Homecoming this year. The exchange of "ambassadors" between the University of Oregon and the University of Washington will establish a Homecoming custom. Oregon and Washington hold their Homecoming celebration on the same dates this year.

Richard Shore Smith of Eugene, one-time All-American fullback and for five years a star player with the University of Oregon football team, will represent Oregon on the Washington campus. After leaving Oregon Mr. Smith played in the Columbia University backfield and in his day was one of the greatest players in the East. Judge King Dykeman of Seattle, one of the leading jurists of the state of Washington, will represent the U. of W. He has for two years been president of the University of Washington Alumni Association.

Homecoming at Oregon begins with a big rally on the campus on the evening of Friday, November 10. The Homecoming parade in which all campus organizations will take part will be held preceding the rally. A display of fireworks will be a feature.

RED PEPPER HEAT ENDS RHEUMATISM

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone. Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

Saturday morning the R. O. T. C. of the University will march in the Armistice Day parade together with upperclassmen who saw service. The University of Oregon alumni luncheon is scheduled for Saturday noon and the Homecoming game will be played on Hayward Field in the afternoon. Alumni and upperclassmen will dance in the National Guard armory Saturday evening. The freshmen, sophomore dance will be held in the Woman's building.

A number of important matters of interest to the alumni will be discussed at the alumni association meeting at Homecoming. President Robert B. Kaykendall will preside.

Flappers are Getting Their Walking Papers In City of London Now

LONDON, Oct. 20. (By Mail).—The "flapper type" of young girl is rapidly disappearing in London. The first signs of waning popularity is the discarding of bobbed hair.

According to West End hairdressers shortened locks are no longer approved, and the coming winter season will see new styles in the art of hair dressing. The most popular substitute for bobbed hair is a short pompadour, and the use of a small ribbon or wreath. This is the favorite style of Princess Mary.

The reversion to hair dressing has ever gone to the extent that small amounts of false hair will be used this winter.

The new color for fall hats is "green almond," and veils will be worn extensively. The small hat

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

with a veil fastened across the front, which was popular during the war, is to be worn again. The hats will be smaller this fall, but huge shapes, rivaling the "Merry Widows" of years ago, will be the rage in the spring.

The new evening dresses in the Resort Street windows are entirely minus a back, and a cord of white silk has taken the place of a wider shoulder strap. The materials in vogue are dark shades and purple, and heavy silks and satins will be almost the only materials used. Long trains will again grace the ball-rooms, and three distinct trains are not too much for one gown. Rich oriental braides and jeweled ornaments are to be seen on all of the gowns.

WOLVERTON MAY RETURN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Talk of Harry Wolverton returning to the Pacific Coast Baseball League next year as a manager is one of the first winter baseball gossip stories to be sent around the circuit. Wolverton formerly managed the San Francisco Seals and Sacramento Senators, and was one of the most popular chiefs in the league. Gossip has it that he may be named to lead one of the northern teams.

The good Maxwell is outselling because it has been definitely accepted as far and away the greatest value in its class. The remarkable performance records the good Maxwell is making in the hands of owners, everywhere, is the result of the fine way in which it is made in every part that is subjected to stress and wear.
