MARVIN WOOD BAGS FINE DEER

(Special to the Observer)
THE PARK, Nov. 12.—At the breakfast table Saturday morning Kenneth Wamorder made the remark, "I must be doing something to get me a coat and hat." It's getting mighty chilly of a morning. After he went out, he shortly returned from his trap carrying a fine large coyote. He will soon wear a new coat and hat.

Mrs. Maude Wamorder had a long visit with her daughter, Mrs. Lola Wamorder, at Thermo Flat. She reports the very best of news for the Flat is in top condition for winter.

Ken Wamorder is busy getting her winter's wood supply. George McInnes is hauling it for her.

Mrs. Charlene Vanorder entertained several guests last Monday. The school directors' meeting, and a fine dinner was the theme of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Goodell of Elk Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Van of The Park, were among the guests present.

Mrs. Will Vanorder is in possession of two fine cows, the outcome of a long fight with Milton Cunningham of Helix.

Robert Lewis has moved away from the hamstead.

By Teacher of the Creek, and Wm. Dineen, of Metton, were up on the South fork of Catherine creek commencing up cattle on Monday of this week.

Robert Hildey, James Bryant and James March, of La Grande, were up on Catherine creek hunting deer. They report lots of signs but no meat.

Marvin Wood killed a large mule deer with seven points close to the hill ranch. It is believed to be the largest mule which has been seen and chased so much for the last year or two. It took all Mr. Wood and Lew Wood could do to lug it up, it was so large and heavy.

BABES WANT HOMES

It is almost Thanksgiving and as a holiday gift the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Oregon, located at 106 E. 25 N. Portland, is asking of you four good homes. First there is George and Grace, three and six months, bright, affectionate, desiring of nothing but love.

Second, Charles, aged 14, an orphan, a fine boy, has a drop of Italian blood, but our history doesn't prove this. However, he is dark, bright eyes, neat clothes, happy and a great favorite with our institution family.

Third, Bobbie, aged 5, good looking, healthy and bright, wants to live on a farm.

Fourth, Pearl, aged 3, dark eyes and hair, bright, has had a hard time and needs a real home, although she is growing happy and plump with us.

Please let us hear from you.

STOP RHEUMATISM WITH RED PEPPER

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red pepper. Instant relief. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Frees the blood circulation, breaks up the congestion, and the old rheumatism torture is gone.

Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little of any drug store. Get a jar at once. Use it for lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, colds in chest. Almost instant relief awaits you. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

COVE LADY INJURES HAND

(Special to the Observer)
COVE, Nov. 12.—George Clark was returned Saturday from a time spent with his wife, Mrs. A. W. Hinkley at Lewisville, Washington.

A. L. Becker and family spent the week-end in Pleasant Valley, Oregon relatives.

Mrs. Edna and daughter, Miss Paul Baker, are visiting their son and brother, Everett Baker in Helix for a few days.

Mrs. Frances Trer, who has spent the summer with Mrs. A. L. Becker, returned to her home in Pleasant Valley on Friday.

Paul Hoffman, Ben Gekeler of La Grande and Mr. Patton of Helix were here Monday helping Mr. Patton workers make arrangements for building a new hall. A general meeting will be held Saturday for the day plans.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Towle and the man land will leave this week for California, where they will spend the winter.

Lydia Chadwick and family spent Monday at the Oregon chadwick home.
