The Commercial Creamery has been doing an increasing business for several months, receiving between 9,000 and 10,000 pounds of milk daily, and distributing from 7,000 to 8,000 a month among the farmers of the Illinois country. The plant employed six men. According to Mr. Hill, arrangements will be made immediately for receiving cream until such time as the company will be able to care for the full business.

It is reported a Ford car was heard leaving the vicinity of the creamery shortly before the fire was discovered.
The report lends color to the rumor that the fire was set by some thief.
A carload of coal and a car of sugar just received by the company were also burned.

water is "Pop" Grant to the very life. He is an actor of long-established reputation on the stage and a screen acquisition of which film-dom should be proud. Kate Lester is "Mom" and the children are acted by Cullen Landis, Patsy Ruth Miller, Richard Tucker, Neil Craig and Dana Todd. Esther Ralston, Arthur Trimble, Lucille Rickson, Max Davidson, William Carroll and Helga Hayward complete the cast.
If you enjoyed "The Old Nest" do not miss "Remembrance."

AT SHERREY'S—LAST DAY
Homely Southern Spirit Draws Tears and Laughs in "My Old Kentucky Home."
A story of the homely Southern sentiment of mother love with all the magnificence and grandeur as only the Southern spirit can be portrayed is seen in "My Old Kentucky Home," one of the big motion pictures of the year from an original story by Anthony Paul Kelly.
The picture abounds in thrills, sparkling romance and is of the melodramatic type. It is said to be to the South what "Way Down East" is to New England.
A young man, son of a proud and haughty Southern widow, is finally released from Sing Sing where he has done a term, having been railroaded. Upon hearing the strains of "My Old Kentucky Home" he becomes homesick.
His mother is overwhelmed at seeing him and while enroute to the South he meets his former sweetheart on the train.
The boy's mother has entered "Disie," her prize horse, in the derby, and in one of the wildest racing scenes ever witnessed, "Disie" wins and the boy and his sweetheart come into their own.
Comedy, "Pat and Take"
AT SHERREY'S—TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, "REMEMBRANCE" In "Remembrance," the big Goldwyn special, coming to the Sherry theatre for two days, Rupert Busher has again demonstrated himself a film craftsman of the first order.
The new photoplay is a companion-picture to Mr. Busher's screen masterpiece, "The Old Nest," which was one of the few really big pictures of last year.
"Remembrance" does for Father Farr "The Old Nest" did for Mother; it presents the head of the house in a sympathetic light. He comes first after everyone else" out in the end he comes out strong.
"Pop" Grant is the head of the household which has developed into "spenders"; they look upon "Pop" as a "good thing" to be worked to the limit, and "Pop" works to the limit for his family. When the ill-

CHINAMEN CAN
KID 'EM ALONG

(By Associated Press)
PEKING, Nov. 13.—"Kidning" is not a lost art in China. A young American woman was being escorted recently by an American tourist of tender years to the Ming Tomb.
Some two hundred marines from the American Legation Guard, on a hike, were resting beside the Avenue of Stone Beasts, which forms the approach to the tomb.
The young woman, and her escort were mounted on burros about the size of a six-month-old calf, urged to activity by Chinese mule-boys with their explosive shouts of "Ndah, ndah." As they arrived abreast of the marines the tourist's mount stumbled and spilled his rider in the dust.
"Oh you cowboy," sang out one of the hard-bottled ones.
