THEATRES

AT SHERRYS—LAST DAY OF "REMEMBRANCE"

We have had heart appeal in mother pictures, such as Goldwyn's production of "The Old Nest," and now comes an equally sympathetic story of the father of a family in "Remembrance." Goldwyn's newest super-feature. It is a remarkable picture, unlike anything heretofore attempted on the screen, and is bound to interest all classes and ages of theatre-goers.

The reception accorded "Remembrance" at its first showing in the Sherry theatre proves beyond a doubt that Rupert Hughes, the author and director of the picture, has struck upon a popular theme.
"Poor Old Dad" is the hero of this story and all the sympathy goes to him as he toils to meet the demands of his extravagant family.
The mother is a social climber and so are the sons and daughters, but Dad remains his simple tastes. The struggle to make his income meet the ever increasing demands of the family is too much for him and he offers an illness that almost causes his death.

But Dad, just when his illness reaches a crisis, decides that he can't afford to die, so he starts to get well. And by this time the family has learned its lesson. Dad isn't going to ever look any more.
He is going to have time to enjoy life a little and the family is going to stop deluging him with bills.
Claude Gillingwater, who plays the father, proves himself to be one of the finest character actors on the screen; and, for the rest, Goldwyn has assembled an extraordinarily good cast, including such favorites as Patsy Ruth Miller, Cullen Landis, Richard Tucker and Kate Lester.

Also showing a comedy entitled,
"The Tourist."

BILL FARNUM IN NEW PICTURE AT ARCADE

A thrilling story of the west, "Moonshine Valley," a big William Fox production with William Far-num as the star, will be shown at the Arcade Theatre today and Thursday.

The popularity of Farnum grows greater with every new picture in which he appears. And there is good reason for this. William Far-num's pictures are always blooded thrills. Farnum represents man as we all wish to see him—a man who fights for right, who battles against injustice, large and small.
In "Moonshine Valley" he has a beautiful background for his work—most of the scenes in the play are laid in the western foothills.

Sadie Mullen, a new comer to the screen, is Farnum's leading lady. He is also supported by an other newcomer, Dawn O'Day, three years old. This youngster is said to be one of the cleverest children appearing on the screen. Holmes Herbert, always a favorite, plays a prominent part. Jean, the dog, and an old favorite with the fans, has a part which, it is said, he enacts to perfection.

A comedy is also being shown.

COMING TO ARCADE

Ted Browning directed "Under Two Flags," the Universal-Jewel special starring Priscilla Dean, which comes to the Arcade Theatre on Monday. The remarkable success of "Outside the Law," in which Browning directed Miss Dean, and other mutual ventures, is sufficient recommendation of "Under Two Flags."

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Men-tho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.
You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

A lick town is one where everybody you meet comments on your new suit.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyck's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
