THEATRES

"THE FORBIDDEN THING"
A STORY OF GREAT LOVE

The triumph of true love over false is the underlying theme of "The Forbidden Thing," Allan Dwan's first offering under the banner of Associated Producers, which will be the feature attraction at the Arcade Theatre today and Saturday.

Abel Blake loves Joan, a pretty girl of Provincetown, on Cape Cod, and is ready to marry her when she is called away to nurse an uncle who is ill. No sooner has she gone than Abel falls under the evil spell of Glory Prada, a dance hall beauty. When Glory realizes that she can entrap Abel in no other way, she contrives to marry him. Unhappiness is the inevitable result.
Joan, when she learns of Abel's faithlessness, gives her hand to importuning Dave Whorf, a young fishing captain. Before a little boy is born to them, Glory runs away from the disillusioned Abel and casts her precarious lot with the owner of a small circus. Abel's another dies of grief and Abel loses his standing in the community.

Dave, meanwhile, is drowned and Joan is left a widow. Glory, trying to stab her circus lover as the result of a quarrel, is shot and dies alone on the sand dunes.

Eventually, through a fortuitous circumstance, Abel and Joan are reunited. Abel is forgiven by the townspeople and, with the two children of Dave and the woman he has always loved, Abel settles down to a life of long-delayed happiness.

"The Playhouse," a two reel comedy featuring Buster Keaton, is also being shown on this same program.

"CAUGHT BLUFFING" LAST DAY
AT SHERRYS

The idol of the Northland, the hero of unnumberable tales of Alaskan snows and frigid spaces, Frank Mayo in his latest starring vehicle, "Caught Bluffing," directed by Lambert Hill-yer.

The story of a gambler in the North country who never played any way but squarely in his life until an occasion arose, where he had to resort to crookedness when the life of the girl he loved was at stake. Mayo is said to exceed anything he has done yet in this latest vehicle, "Caught Bluffing." The popular Universal star is commonly connected with death defying stunts and hazardous tricks, but in this story of the Klomlike, he depicts them all by a breathtaking drive from a cliff top to the icy waters of a tiny lake three hundred feet below.

The leading feminine role is played by Edna Murphy, who has enjoyed a rapid rise to companion standing in motion pictures.

Ruth Boyce is cast in the role of singing house follower and roulette addict. Others in the supporting cast are Wallace MacDonald, Jack Curtis, Jack Walters, Andrew Arbuckle, "Bull" Durham, Scott Timmer, Martin Best and Tote Duerow.
Also showing "Phonics of Fate," with Franklin Parnum.

TEARING, CLAWING DEAN
BACK AGAIN

The tearing, clawing, battling Priscilla Dean, the Priscilla that you loved in "The Wildcat of Paris" and "The Virgin of Stamboul," is coming to the Arcade Theatre on Monday in the greatest triumph of her career—a version of Ouida's "Under Two Flags."

As Cigarette daughter of the regiment, she gives a characterization to the screen that is truly described as "a masterpiece." The passion, selfishness, jealousy, love and hatred that marked the life of Ouida's famous character of the desert is portrayed by the impulsive Priscilla in a series of realistic scenes that makes one forget he is watching a picture. Yes, love and hate with her, and at the end you leave marveling at the ability of this favorite of the screen. She wins you through real merit.

No one ever doubted for Priscilla Dean, no one could. In all her big scenes she is so close to the camera that every expression of her face is plainly discernible. An excellent cast supports Miss Dean.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"THE SIN FLOOD"

The new Goldwyn photoplay "The Sin Flood," coming to the Sherry theatre for two days beginning Sunday, is the kind of drama that gives one the feeling of undergoing a personal experience. The screen seems to disappear, and we take part in the activities of the characters before us.

This is realism carried to the highest degree, and the story lends itself excellently to the pictorial form. It is an enlarged version of the stage play, "Syndaglogon," by the eminent Swedish dramatist, Henning Berger. None of the dramatic power of the original has been lost in translating the play into the language of the screen. "The Sin Flood" is a picture that should not be missed.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and the results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first symptom appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Adv.

come misshapen, put it in a bucket of butter milk and it will come out looking like new.
