American Speed in Berlin Dismays Foreigners; Leather Purse Shows Too Much Stuff

(By Associated Press) BERLIN, Oct. 23. (By) Boxing has become so popular in Germany that the American of matinee programs has adopted. Some 10,000 crowded the Sports Palace of two recent bills, and stated the demand would have even greater had it not been the fact that the bouts were in the evening and many of the fans were kept away by the curfew of getting midnight home.

American here are interested in the outcome of a challenge by Hans Brehmstrater, German heavy weight champion, has with an American boxer, who provided the sensation of evening in his Berlin debut. Ly. Samson is reputed to have a sporting partner of such a nature to have made a good against such fighters as Tom Don and "Kid" Norfolk. Samson surprised the spectators by showing a speed and an aggressiveness readily contrasting the sluggish maneuvers of the Englishman. Although twenty lighter than Hugo Polzulin, a Bavarian of considerable experience in Germany, the American knocked his opponent down in the two opening rounds. The latter's second save, their from the other eight rounds, throwing in the towel. The stranger, who was at the immediately resigned, and the winner and it was accepted.

American who attended the gram found highly amusing other bouts on the bill. In the a flabby 150-pounder who has become somewhat of a favorite, an German pugilist, put up a good opposition to a Dutchman, ing many enthusiasts who are expecting a stiff battle. A hardy stalling, but in the eight rounds with little or no to ward off a series of punches lacked. The more effective favorite, finally talked over corner, ending the fight. was greeted with a bouquet of from an admirer.

A 140 lb. boxer, under 160, has a fair reputation behind at the of the fight as a "W" is a success. The Italian, Spalla, prevented from appearing of illness. After keeping of a German opponent, and a husband, ten minutes, impatiently, he entered the ring, the He appeared, attended by an retinue of assistants. His old landed several stiff blows to all the fight, and then for the ruler. He refused to quit until the ring to submit until the long enough to secure a knock-out in the first round. The crowd pathos, laughed, and protest turn.

Less Meat If Kidneys Both
Take a glass of Salts if you Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats too much meat can make a mistake by following the kidneys occasionally, says a known authority. Big meat eaters daily develop uric acid, which excites the kidneys, they become overworked, the strain, get sluggish and la filter the waste and poisons from blood; then we get sick. Rheumatism, backache, liver trouble, nervousness, sleepiness and urinary distress often come from sluggish kidneys. The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or the urine is cloudy, offensive, or sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, eating meat and get about four of of salt from any pharmacy. A tablespoon in a glass of water, four breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lit and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys; to neutralize the acids in urine; to relieve urinary irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

And Salts is inexpensive and can injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which every should take now and then to help the kidneys clean and active and blood pure. After avoiding such kidney complications.

THEATRES

AT SHERRYS, SUNDAY, MONDAY, "THE SIN FLOOD"

When the cast for "The Sin Flood," the new Goldwyn picture coming to the Sherry theatre, two days, beginning Sunday, engaged, one leading woman and ten leading men were needed, the main roles were of equal importance, and called for an actor's stellar ability to play it. The choice made by the casting director resulted in a genuine all-cast.

The leading woman in the play is Helene Chadwick, who played in many Goldwyn pictures. Opposite her, Richard Dix plays part of a young broker who, through a spiritual transformation, and learns to appreciate the value of a constant love.

James Kirkwood, one of the impressive actors on the screen, seen in the role of an ill-preacher, William Ormond, gave an exuberantly funny impersonation of a "Movie" director, "Doubting for Rome," is a job engineer, and Otto Hofman played down-and-out actor.

For many years, Ralph Lewis has been a well known figure on the screen; his role of Governor St. men in "The Birth of a Nation" will long be remembered. He will play an important part in "The Flood." Other members of the cast are John Stepping, Howard D. L. H. King, Will Walling and Edwin Karr. Under the direction of Frank Lloyd, these players will do the best work of their careers.

Also showing a comedy, DYNAMIC DEAN IN "UNDER TWO FLAGS" HERE SO

Universal Star Has Best Role Her Sensational Career.

With an immortal story, a dynamic personality and a cast of players whose names might be played up separately as stars, "Under Two Flags" comes to the Sherry Theatre on Monday as a Universal-Jewell offering of the highest standard.

Priscilla Dean stars as the thetic Gigarette, James Kirkwood opposite her, and John David Ethel Grey Terry, Stuart Holmes, H. Bainbridge Fred Craven, Bud Law and Bobby Mack have of important parts.

Ouida did not dream of the success to which her story would come. She died in poverty in France; very few knew that the passing Louise de la Ramee, as she was private life, was the eclipse of a brilliant career. As is the case with many a great genius, she died without the reward that was just hers. If she had lived but a few years longer fame immeasurable would have come to her.

Choosing such a mighty vehicle for Priscilla Dean, Universal executives knew that a director of unquestioned superiority would be to guide the filming. Tod Browning, who shared credit with M. Dean for the phenomenal run of "Outside the Law" and "The Vir of Stamboul," was assigned to repeat those successes.

"HONOR FIRST" IS NEW JOHN GILBERT FILM

With John Gilbert in the role, "Honor First," his latest William Fox feature, will be shown at the Star Theatre today and Sunday. Press reports from other cities where this picture has been shown accord it high praise. Many who have reviewed the feature assure that Gilbert is at his best.

The story deals with the difference in character and temperament between twin brothers, one of whom served in the French army during the war. Gilbert portrays both brothers. His work as the cowardly brother is said to be especially worth while. This characterization calls for extraordinary force in acting.

Not only is the story of the picture intensely gripping and worth while, but the photography and direction are declared to be of the best. Jerome Storm, who is fast becoming one of the foremost directors in the film world, staged the picture.

Many of the scenes were photographed under extraordinary conditions and are described as masterpieces of photographic art.
