20 EGGS SOLD FOR $500—TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 29.—A record price for eggs in this section was established when H. M. Leathers of Woodland county sold twenty eggs from Lady Jewell, his champion White Leghorn hen, for $500, at the official egg laying contest conducted by the Western Washington Experiment station.

IN COLLEGE—"Is your son in college?" "Technically, yes." "Hey?" "He is touring the country with the glue club just now."—Louisville Courier-Journal

A Timely Suggestion—This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and the results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first symptom appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.—Ad-

ROADS GOOD NEAR STARKEY

STARKEY, Nov. 29.—Starkey is having plenty of clear, cold weather now. The roads are good for this time of the year.

Most of the stock is out of the hills. Antonio Vey, Jr., is to take his horses from the range on Monday and will take them to Echo for winter quarters.

Lee Waznick was a Starkey visitor last Monday on official business with A. J. Sullivan.

Dave Bonifer of Gibson, Oregon, was over last week on a business trip. Mr. Bonifer purchased four fine work horses of John Wells, while Mr. Wells bought cattle from Mr. Bonifer.

Jack Starvo and William Robertson were La Grande visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elen Briggs visited Ailyn Thonburg and wife Sunday. J. S. Ross and family are preparing to leave Starkey in the next few days.

A. J. Sullivan went to La Grande Sunday.

William Briggs purchased 30 acres of grazing land from H. L. Sullivan. The consideration was $450.

BROADCASTING THE WORD TO HEATHENS—ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.—The church militant is showing itself mindful of the facilities and accessories which have proved most useful in carrying on warfare other its own.

Recognizing almost insuperable difficulties encountered by its missionaries in certain portions of the world the committee on conservation and advance of the church of the M. E. denomination, has decided to supplement the Bible and hymnal with airplanes and wireless apparatus.

BACK GIVES OUT—You tax the kidneys—overwork them—They can't keep up the continual strain. The back may give out—it may ache and pain. Urinary troubles may set in. Don't wait longer—take Doan's Kidney Pills. La Grande people tell you how they act. Ask your neighbor! Howard C. Trull, 1395 D St., La Grande, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a remedy of merit. I have used them for attacks of kidney complaint when my back was weak and lame and my kidneys acted irregularly. A short use of Doan's has never failed to relieve these attacks and strengthen my back and kidneys." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Trull had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

WHICH?—Is America to be one nation or a lot of struggling, fighting groups? Are we all Americans, or are we Italian Americans, Irish Americans, German Americans? Is legislation to be for the common good, or is it to get advantages for this class or that, asks the Kansas City Star.

Serious Bladder Trouble—"Could not stand nor sit and was forced to cry out from intense pain," writes Henry Williams, Tarkio, Missouri. "The doctors said I had inflammation of the bladder and an operation was necessary. Tried Foley Kidney Pills and improved at once. Tell all my friends about Foley Kidney Pills as it will save many from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation." Bladder and kidney trouble demand prompt treatment. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief.—Adv.

Say Thanksgiving With Flowers
Let Flowers Complete the Thanksgiving Festivities
If you are to entertain this Thanksgiving, let flowers, especially Chrysanthemums, radiate that cheer and brilliancy which always completes a finished setting.
If you are to be a guest, a gift of flowers will please your hostess and express your grateful appreciation of her hospitality.
The gorgeous blossoms of the Chrysanthemums carry, as do lilies at Easter the spirit of the season
