MAE MURRAY'S NEW SPANISH PICTURE IS AT SHERRY'S TODAY

Georgic Gowns and Brilliant Dancing Features of "Fascination"—Story of Girl Fascinated by a Toreador.

In "Fascination," Mae Murray's latest production, presented by Sherri Z. Leonard at the Sherri Theatre, she plays the part of a young girl who, revolting against the claustrophobia of an aunt, decides to give herself a holiday. Disguising herself in a black wig and holiday garb she attends a bull fight against the wishes of her aunt. At the bull fight she meets Carrita, a handsome young toreador, who fascinates her immediately. It is this fascination that supplies the main motive for the play.

daughter of a Spanish father and an American mother. The combination of the Latin temperament and the Anglo-Saxon gives Mae Murray a wonderful opportunity to do remarkable acting as Doña De Lara. She portrays the part of a young girl who, revolting against the claustrophobia of an aunt, decides to give herself a holiday. Disguising herself in a black wig and holiday garb she attends a bull fight against the wishes of her aunt. At the bull fight she meets Carrita, a handsome young toreador, who fascinates her immediately. It is this fascination that supplies the main motive for the play.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT DUPLICATED IN SCREENING "MASQUERADE"

For the first time in the history of the screen, film fans will see a reproduction of the interior of the British house of commons in a dramatic photoplay. Heretofore this has been shown only in news weeklies, but now it has been built for the motion picture version of "The Masquerader," in which Guy Bates Post is being starred by Richard Walton Tully, as a First National attraction which will be the feature at the Arcade theatre Monday. This particular set reveals one of the adventures of the screen over the stage, for this scene was far too big a proposition to be shown in the theatrical presentation of this play. On the film, however, one sees in the screening of "The Masquerader" the various highly dramatic episodes of the story that transpire in the house of commons.

Much research on the part of Tully, Post and Director James Young and Art Director Wilfred Backlund resulted in a set of magnificent detail, gave the scenic architects the material which enabled them to reproduce this historic spot exactly.

JACK HOLT'S NEW PICTURE A WINNER

Jack Holt's new Paramount picture "While Satan Sleeps," based on Peter B. Kyme's story, "The Parson of Paradise," scored an emphatic success on its presentation at the Arcade theatre last night. The theme, that of a criminal who wages a heroic fight for the mastery of his soul afforded numerous opportunities for dramatic and thrilling action, which the star and his splendid supporting cast, including Fritz Brunette, J. P. Lockney, Wade Boteler, Isabel Van Buren and other members of the Paramount stock company made the most. The picture is highly entertaining and will be shown today for the last time.
