Mrs. Dorothy Rose returned from La Grande Saturday. She had been suffering with an ulcerated tooth and had it extracted.

The family of J. S. Rose is leaving Starkey this week. They are going to start an eating house for railroad men in Gibbon for there is no place there where meals are served.

Mrs. Dorothy Rose will leave in a few days for the east where her husband is employed in a garage.

The Rose family feel very badly indeed about leaving Starkey, and it is with considerable regret that their friends bid them goodbye.

UNION PLANS BASKETBALL

Expect to Have New Gymnasium Ready for Use Before the Hoop Season is Over.

UNION, Dec. 4.—Thanksgiving day passed very quietly in Union. Many people were out of town spending the day with relatives and friends. About fifty, mostly local people, enjoyed their Thanksgiving feast at the Union hotel.

Chautauque festival has come and gone, as usual, the people of Union and vicinity enjoyed real treats during the five evening performances. The Patton brothers, who were in La Grande last summer proved to be the most popular entertainers and drew the largest crowd, but many thought that Private Post, with his lecture on world peace, was the best number presented during the week. Financially the festival was a success, as the local committee went over the top in regard to the guarantee before the second night of the meeting. A contract was signed for an Ellison-White festival next fall, probably in November, and preliminary steps having been taken looking forward to a permanent chautauque association to handle the work in the future, thus relieving a few faithful workers of the burden of the soliciting and working up the chautauque each year.

Mrs. John Hough came up from Portland to spend Thanksgiving and the week-end with her husband and daughter who are both teaching in the Union schools.

Darrell Kiehlback is home from Corvallis for a short time. He went down to attend the O. A. C. but owing to unavoidable circumstances was compelled to postpone his college work and will remain with his parents for at least part of the winter.

The local schools closed Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holidays and re-opened today. Work in the gymnasium has been halted temporarily on account of delay in lumber delivery.

The fair and bazaar held last week was a complete success. About $250 was netted from the sales of articles donated. The ladies celebrated the successful ending of their work by holding a dance in Minnie's hall.

E. H. Johnson and family spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Rich, in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Boyles, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Willson and Mrs. and Mrs. F. B. Willson came over from La Grande and enjoyed Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. W. V. Conner. All returned to La Grande Thursday evening except Mrs. E. F. Willson and her daughter Leola, who remained in Union for the remainder of the week, and returned to their home Sunday evening.

Miss Freda Thompson, one of the grade teachers in the local schools left Wednesday for her home in Prairie City to be with her parents for the Thanksgiving holidays. She returned to Union Sunday.

All About Accident.

The auto accident early Saturday morning was near Union instead of near Hot Lake as reported in Saturday paper. The car left the road about two hundred yards west of the cement bridge over Little Catherine creek only a short distance from Union. Marshall Slater and Under-taker Cox were called to the scene of the accident and helped take the two men, one badly wounded and the other dead, to Hot Lake. The machine was brought into town and is now in the Oregon Trail garage. A demolished top, battered fenders and splintered wheel show that the car must have been traveling at a terrific rate. The body of the car, the wheels and one wheel are also scattered with blood. Residents on Main street heard the party come through town a little after midnight and they were then going more than fifty miles an hour.

The Modern Woodmen of America held another invitation dance in the K. P. hall Saturday evening.

Miss Edna Watkins, primary teacher in the Union schools went to Alton to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Watkins during the holidays.

Miss Nina Blacker came home from her school at Meatham to be with her parents during the holidays.

Union's new Standard oil station has been installed and will be ready to serve the public. W. I. Kelly of La Grande did the carpenter work.

Lavon Morris is in Union again, after spending the summer in and near La Grande, and is planning to open a cleaning and pressing parlor this week.

Hoop Season to Start.

Union high basketball aspirants are lining up and preparing for practice under the coaching of Ralph Morgan. Practice and perhaps the first games will be held in Smith's hall which has been used for this purpose for several years, but Superintendent Conklin says the new gymnasium will be ready for use some time in January and will be utilized as soon as possible. It will have two practice courts and will accommodate most of the students who wish to indulge in this sport.

Miss Maud Crocker, who teaches in La Grande and Miss Mary Crocker who teaches in Walla Walla county, were home for the November holidays. They have returned to their respective schools.

Miss McLennan, platform manager for the Ellison-White chautauque, spent the last week in Union. While here she stopped at the Union hotel.

An expert on feet and footwear has been at the Conner's store the latter part of the week and gave an illustrated lecture at the Cory theater Sunday evening.

The following eastern Oregon people were registered at the Union hotel during the week: W. S. Bower, Floyd Conner, Eunice Patterson, W. W. Cartwright and wife, Mrs. S. W. Kassebaum, T. H. Sutherland, Walter E. Meacham, and W. C. Calder of Baker; E. W. Hackman, A. Wright, Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Quigley, Miss Ruth Quigley, A. E. Kinman and Betha Graham of La Grande; S. R. Barnes of Elgin; Mrs. M. DeVore of Hot Lake; and O. M. Hancock of Enterprise.

The CHENEY

The Longer You Play It, the Sweeter it Grows

THE CHENEY Violin Resonator

The developed tones are resonated by this CHENEY instead of megaphones. The violin curves and the violin wood in THE CHENEY resonator give mellowness, richness and rare beauty to all music.

Few people look far enough ahead when they choose a phonograph. It is a matter for thought and care. Will it give as much pleasure—will it play as beautifully—will it last as perfectly into your home after many years as it seems today?

You can be sure it will when you select THE CHENEY. Like its violin resonator, which mellows and becomes even more beautiful with age, every other part is built to survive the years.

Let us show you how THE CHENEY's tone adjuster reproduces, tone arm, acoustic throat, and orchestral chambers, also add to the permanence of its charm. If you cannot call, send us the coupon for the interesting CHENEY booklet.
