MAY McAVOY AND THE
CARTER DE HAVENS, LAST DAY AT SHERRY'S

There's a bit of everything for everybody in "The Top of New York," the May McAvoy Paramount feature which opened at the Sherry Theatre yesterday.

There is wonderful "kid" appeal in the huge toy shop with its thousands of toys and the appearance of May McAvoy as an animated doll, to the delight of the Christmas shoppers.

There are thrills in the scenes where the heroine is saved from committing suicide and a rousing fight between Edward Cecil and Walter McGrail.

There is comedy relief by the Irish characters impersonated by Carrio Clark Ward and Arthur Hoyt.

There's real pathos and drama revolving about the Christmas rush in the toy department and the home experiences of the little sales girl who makes such a plucky fight for the happiness of her crippled brother.

"The Top of New York" is an entertaining story which splendidly fits the winning human appeal of May McAvoy whom playgoers remember for her gripping work as "Gizel" in "Sentimental Tommy." The star does a convincing bit of work and is supported by an excellent cast including Walter McGrail, Madam Marshall, Charles Bennett, Edward Cecil, Pat Moore, Carrie Clark Ward, Arthur Hoyt, Mary Jane Irwin.

Credit for the excellent direction belongs to the late William D. Taylor whose final production it is.
This is the second picture starring Miss McAvoy which Mr. Taylor directed, the first being "Morals," which made an instantaneous success.

Also the Carter de Havens in their latest comedy, "Christmas."

SHERRY'S, THURSDAY, FRIDAY
"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA"

"The Prisoner of Zenda," which has thrilled thousands who have read the book or seen the play, has been made into a photoplay by Rex Ingram, the man who leaped into the front rank of motion picture directors by his production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." This Metro picture, which comes to the Sherry Theatre on Thursday, preserves all those elements which made the Edward Rose stage version of the novel by Anthony Hope, on which the photoplay is based, so popular.

It is a story of the adventures of Rudolf Rassendyll, a young Englishman who for a time became the king of the mythical country of Ruritania and who won the love of the Princess Flavia, after a series of plots and counterplots during which he is compelled to fight for his very life. Beautiful settings, gorgeous costumes, and an exceptional cast contribute to make this romance one which will be talked about by all lovers of good pictures.

In the cast are Lewis Stone, Robert Edeson, Alice Terry, Stuart Holmes, Ramon Navarro, Barbara La Marr, Malcolm McGregor, Edward Connelly and Lois Lee. This adaptation was done by Mary O'Hara and the photography by John F. Seitz.

"HURRICANE'S GAL" WILL BE SCREENED TOMORROW

Starting tomorrow, the feature for three days at the Arcade Theatre will be "Hurricane's Gal," a First National attraction starring Dorothy Phillips and produced by Allen Hollar.

"Hurricane's Gal" is a sea story, a combination of thrills, suspense, love, hatred and humor, with swiftly moving sequences. Miss Phillips is cast as Lulu, who, through a chain of circumstances, becomes captain of a smuggling vessel.

Complications arise when a stowaway is discovered in the hold. He is young and handsome, and for the first time in her romantic life Lulu falls in love. Later, however, she discovers that the stowaway is a spy and he betrays the smugglers into the hands of the government. Many stirring adventures follow before the path of love becomes smooth again.

SHOULD A WIFE BE A VAMP?
When a young girl thinks of getting married these days she has in mind of a new angle on the double-business business, namely, that a wife isn't any kind of a wife at all unless she can vamp well enough to help her husband along in his work.

Stact, believe it or not, and it is well illustrated in the Universal play "A Wonderful Wife" starring Miss

"Sweetheart."
It is not exactly known when or how this word came into use. The word was originally written in the form of two words, and it is found in literature as early as 1290.

THESE THREE VITAL FACTS DETER-MINE YOUR POWER AND ECONOMY It's probably wear or inaccurate fit in the piston rings, pistons and pins which is responsible for the loss of power and waste of gas in your car. Power and economy really depend upon three vital units.

All that many motorists need to restore their maximum power and economy is McQuay-Norris Piston Rings. There is one to fit every pocketbook, but car owners who think more of permanent economy and satisfaction than of initial cost find that the combination of Leak Proof Rings for power and Superoil Rings to prevent oil troubles is their best investment. All Mc-Quay-Norris Piston Rings are made of Electric Metal.

If the cylinders of your motor need regrading, you want a set of McQuay-Norris Wainwright Pistons and Pins, as well as Mc-Quay-Norris Rings. They are handled by the same repairmen, service stocks and jobbers.

Your motor can be made practically as good as new for a fraction of the cost of a new car if its three vital units are replaced with McQuay-Norris Products. Write us for booklet "To Have and to Hold Power," which explains the whole subject of motor wear and its correction.
