MISS MACDONALD'S LATEST IS "DOMESTIC RELATIONS"

Katherine Macdonald will be seen in a "different" style of play when her latest production, "Domestic Relations," a "first National" attraction, is seen for the first time in this city at the Avenue Theatre, today and Tuesday.

"Domestic Relations" is essentially what its title implies—the story of the adjustment to a life together of man and woman. Two married couples are made use of for the story. One, Judge and Judge's wife, is a successful, successful and typically representative of the better class of citizenship. The second couple, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Martin, is a laborer with a pretty young wife, and when the drama reaches what he has set up as his physical force and is sentenced to a term in prison by Judge Martin.

On the other side of the story when Martin's wife does some trivial thing that provokes his displeasure he resorts to "mental cruelty." When he finds her in a situation open to misinterpretation he immediately jumps to an erroneous conclusion and proceeds to risk his entire future by ordering his young and beautiful wife from the house. The wife, confident of her own innocence and shocked at the lack of faith of her husband, leaves.

It is a real drama, and a big and powerful exposition of everyday life that married people will appreciate because it is so faithful and true of a great percentage of modern marriages.

SHERRY'S-LAST DAY TODAY WALLACE REID IN "THE DICTATOR"

His New Picture, "The Dictator," Proves that Morale is Everything. Can blank cartridges win a battle? They can if you are taking seriously one of the comedy scenes in "The Dictator," a new Paramount feature starring Wallace Reid. This scene seems to be convincing proof that morale and confidence more than bullets are the important factors in a war.

In this scene from the picture founded on the play by the late Richard Harding Davis, Mr. Reid and an army of rebels of a pseudo-South American country charge the loyal army, firing volleys of blank cartridges from their guns and turn a near defeat into victory. The government troops don't know the shells are blank, and their own ammunition exhausted, they flee like rabbits through the dense smoke. Neither do the rebels know the shells they are firing are blanks, but, thinking them real bullets, they fire with courage and make a victorious charge.

This is only one of the many big spectacular scenes in this new picture which was filmed under the direction of James Cruze. More than 1,000 persons were used in this battle scene. Lila Lee is the heroine, playing the daughter of the rebel leader, Dr. Hiram, portrayed by Theodore Kosloff. Others in the cast are Walter Long, Alan Hale and Kalla Pascha. Also showing Paramount Town.

Their History Lost

When the people of northern Europe were living in ruin, the Mayas of Yucatan seem to have been on the verge of their civilization. The cause of their decline is unknown. When the conquistadors came, soon after the year 1500, their temples, palaces and cities were already in ruins.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it falls, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a beautiful full. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it dangles the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a comb with the hair wash, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

THESE THREE VITAL FACTS DETERMINE YOUR POWER AND ECONOMY

It's probably wear or inaccurate fit in the piston rings, valves and other which is responsible for the loss of power and waste of gas in your car. Power and economy really depend upon these vital units. All that many motorists need to restore their maximum power and economy is Michigan's New Piston Rings. There is one to fit every make of car, but car owners who think more of permanent economy and satisfaction than of initial cost find that the combination of Lead Piston Rings for Power and Superior Oil Film to prevent oil troubles is their best investment. All Michigan's New Piston Rings are made of Mott Metal. If the pistons of your motor need re-grinding you want a set of Michigan's New Piston Rings and Pins, as well as Michigan's New Piston Rings. They are finished by the same equipment, service checks and jobbers. Your motor can be made practically as good as new for a fraction of the cost of a new car if the three vital units are replaced with Michigan's New Piston Rings. Write us for booklet "To Have and to Hold Power," which explains the whole subject of motor wear and its correction.
