JACKIE COOGAN BACK AGAIN IN A KNOCKOUT

Before you do anything else, make a date with yourself to go and see Jackie Coogan in "Trouble," his latest First National picture, which is showing now for three days at the Arcade Theatre.

No matter whether you've seen Jackie a hundred times heretofore, you've never seen him as good as he is in this one—and besides, it is a picture that, for sheer entertainment, would be hard to match.

Imagine Jackie who doesn't weigh as much as a sack of flour, trying to lug a kit of heavy plumber's tools up a stairway; and picture him further trying the bag to a wagon and luring the old horse into drawing it up for him by waving a carrot under his nose. Then follow Jackie to the scene of trouble, where he contrives to turn a trickle into a flood by smashing the water pipe he meant so earnestly to repair.

You never saw better acting than Jackie does in a courtroom scene where he appears as a witness against his foster father, the plumber, and describes in pantomime how the man beat his wife and then, tied a policeman into submission, only to be felled to earth by a flower pot accurately aimed at his head by Jackie. The boy rises to histrionic heights that few very few stars have ever attained, and his performance here will ever stand as a personal vindication for him as an artist unflinching by his mentor, Charlie Chaplin. Despite his other very splendid characterizations Jackie's career may be said to start with this picture "Trouble," for it is here that the child shines forth unimpeachably a star in his own right.

Wallace Beery, as the heartless foster father, and Gloria Hope, as the wife, head an exceptionally strong supporting cast gathered around the baby artist. The picture was directed by Alfred Austin, who was for many years associated with Charlie Chaplin.

"COLLEEN OF THE PINES" TODAY AND TOMORROW
 Smashing drama and big heart interest combine to make James Novak's first big R-C production a picture of unusually strong appeal to all classes of theatregoers. It is scheduled for showing at the Sherry Theatre today and tomorrow. The element of self-sacrifice on the part of an elder sister for the younger forms the theme of this unusually powerful tale of the open spaces of the Northwest. The picture has abundant thrills, one of which is a hand-to-hand conflict between frontiersmen in a cabin and the sudden and dramatic appearance of a dog who carries off a big share of the honors. Critics are hailing "Colleen of the Pines" as a personal triumph for Miss Novak.

Also "Hell's Fury Gordon," a two reel western.

First Printed Words in the U. S.
 The first printing press in the United States was established at Harvard college in 1680. The first work printed on this press was the "Freeman's Oath," but its most famous publication was John Eliot's "Indian Bible."

For Sale
 Hotel Cameron in City of Walla Walla.—This is a money-maker; 17 bed rooms, well built plastered house, large office and porch; regarded as the home hotel for a large section of the country; well furnished; laundry room equipped. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron built and operated this well known hotel for several years, and desire to retire. The property is free from any debt, and to substantial purchasers very reasonable terms will be given.

New modern nine-room house on Adams; fireplace, garage, lot 50x100; let me show you this property. The price has been put on it with a view of immediate sale. You will readily concede this.

Four-room house and two lots; cement walk, and new woodshed, for $1,250; easy terms.

Some who expect to build in the spring will do well to examine carefully some of the real bargains I now have, absolutely below cost of production, not considering the lots; water, sidewalk and sewer improvements.

WHILE SITTING HERE I HAVE BEEN THINKING HOW MUCH FORCE IS WASTED IN THE WORLD WHICH, IF PROPERLY HARNESSSED, COULD BE APPLIED TO THE BENEFIT OF HUMAN SOCIETY.

I HAVE IN MIND SOME SORT OF ATTACHMENT TO BE WORN BY EVERY PERSON WITH THE HABIT OF SUCKING AIR BACK FORCIBLY THROUGH THE TEETH EVERY FEW SECONDS. THIS APPARATUS COULD STORE UP THE SOUND WAVES UNTIL SUFFICIENT ENERGY HAD BEEN ACCUMULATED AND THEN SUDDENLY RELEASED IN THE FORM OF A

THUMP OVER THE BRAIN CAVITY!! THE INTENSITY OF CONCUSSION COULD BE REGULATED TO MEET THE VARYING REQUIREMENTS OF EITHER LIGHT OR STUBBORN CASES!!!

MRS. MARLIN IS CHAMP PACKER

EMILER, Pa., 21—Special Billy Hamilton, who resides with his son Billy Jr., is very ill and is not expected to live very long.

Shelby Myers, a charter member of the I. O. O. F. lodge organized in Summerville in 1874, was buried in the Summerville cemetery Wednesday. He had no immediate relatives.

Mrs. Mabel Marlin, of Woodburn, Calif., is among the champion apple packers employed at Embler this year. The way she sizes and packs apples shows a speed that is hardly believable.

Firman & White, who have lately withdrawn from the Glafic company, are making independent shipments of fruit now.

Miss Lucretia Buchanan is substituting for Miss Cleo Shelton, who is taking the teachers' examination. Miss Shelton is one of the Allied teachers.

Wesley Doring has returned home after an extended vacation.
