

COVE HIGH HAS BIG ORCHESTRA

(Special to The Observer)

COVE, Dec. 22.—A bazaar and dinner was given December 15 for the benefit of the library. Besides many useful articles and articles of artistic merit, the display included a barrel of flour and a thoroughbred Chester White pig, a fish pond and a gram, bag, added interest and zest for both young and old. At the close of the day all unsold articles were sold at auction. Dinner was served from 5 until 8 and was liberally patronized. A musical program in the evening ended the day's festivities; $145.00 was added to the library fund.

Cove high school has an orchestra of 16 pieces, violins, cornets, saxophones, trombones, euphoniums and piano. With few exceptions the orchestra is entirely from the student body. Prof. and Mrs. J. R. Price, L. H. Bay, Wm. Hallmark, Glen Hallmark, Walter, Ethel and Gladys Daron, Gilbert and Arthur Miller, Robert DeVore, Stuart French, Della and Eva Welmer, Justin and Willard Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers were made happy December 15 by the arrival of a 10-month baby boy.

J. E. Trippler returned Friday from a short visit to Portland.

Mrs. J. E. Lelong left Thursday for Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. DeLone left a month earlier. They will spend the winter in the sunny clime.

Mrs. R. E. White will leave soon to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Harris, in Portland.

A small blaze in the blacksmith's shop on Thursday evening caused considerable excitement but did little damage.

Many sleighing and coasting parties are out, making the most of the snow. A party of young people went out to the cabin of Walter Richards in the middle of the valley, Thursday evening.

Francis Kelly has purchased the stock of drugs owned by Ernest Coons and is moving them into one of the new brick buildings.

Strong Nerves

You can't be healthy, happy or even good when you're nervous and irritable.

Every organ of the body is controlled by the nerves.

When they're out of order you're liable to have a nervous or physical break down.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

soothes irritated nerves and gives nature a chance to restore them to their normal functions.

Sold at pre-war prices—$1.00 per bottle.

Mrs. Jones Welmer was a La Grande visitor on Thursday and again on Saturday.

Prof. J. H. Price, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lay in violin and piano, rendered a beautiful solo at the bazaar on Friday evening.

Lloyd Carter left for La Grande where he is employed by the county. A community Christmas tree will be brightened up Cove on Saturday evening, December 23.

The confectionery owned by Judd Geer is closed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Conklin were La Grande visitors on Wednesday. Other La Grande visitors during the week were Mrs. T. W. Conklin, Miss Jess Kelley, Mrs. A. A. Antles, Alvin Oerton and George Goley.

A small party of young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley, Thursday evening.

Paul M. Ellis, forest ranger, will leave tomorrow to join his wife and spend the holiday season at Redmond, Oregon.

Miss Helen Dougherty, one of our teachers, is at her home in Baker, owing to the serious illness of her father, M. H. Dougherty.

Mrs. T. E. Conklin is substituting during Miss Dougherty's enforced absence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Orton gave a small party on Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Rees and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Herby were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boswell will spend the winter up above Union where Mr. Boswell is feeding about 200 head of stock.

Liberty Before Theology.

Liberty and not theology is the enthusiasm of the present century. The very men who would once have been conspicuous saints are now conspicuous revolutionists; for while their heroism and disinterestedness are their own, the direction which these qualities have taken is determined by the pressure of the age.—H. W. Lecky.

WORK ON CHURCH IS NEARLY DONE

IMBLER, Dec. 22.—Mrs. Henry Fines has returned from a brief visit to Hot Lake where she has been taking care of Allie Slack who is ill.

A meeting of the Grange has been called for December 28th at Summerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Choate spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Woodell.

A Christmas program will be given at Summerville Saturday evening.

Work on the Summerville Methodist church is nearing completion, according to word from that locality.

Elmer Baker plans to move to La Grande with his family while he is in the employ of the machine shops.

Serious Bladder Trouble

"Could not stand nor sit and was forced to cry out from intense pain," writes Henry Williams, Tarkio, Montana. "The doctors said I had inflammation of the bladder and an operation was necessary. Tried Foley Kidney Pills and improved at once. Tell all my friends about Foley Kidney Pills as it will save many from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation." Bladder and kidney trouble demand prompt treatment. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief.—Adv.
