

NORTH POWDER HONORS X-MAS

Schools Have Fine Program Just Before Vacation—Other News of that Lively Community.

NORTH POWDER, Dec. 26.—The North Powder public schools gave a fine program for Christmas on Wednesday evening. The Santa song and the Christmas play by the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades was good and the little ones acted their parts fine and showed careful training on the part of their teachers. The 4th and 5th grades gave a drill and recitation. The upper grade gave songs, drills and playlets. The Contra March by the upper grade girls was fine as the young ladies were in full costume and showed great skill in executing their parts. A song given by the upper grade boys was well rendered and given with a will.

The pupils all showed that they had been well and carefully drilled by their teachers.

The Christmas program was witnessed by a very large crowd and all numbers were heartily applauded. Many and flattering were the compliments paid to teachers on the fine program given by those present.

E. Lindley, a well known rancher was stricken with paralysis on one of the stores on December 19th. He seemed to be in his usual good health when stricken suddenly while at work in the store. A doctor was called at once. Mr. Lindley's left side is affected but not his face. It is hoped that the stroke will not affect him much.

Uncle Billy Watkins, who suffered with a stroke of paralysis a few days ago is able to get up again and looks as well as ever.

Miss Dolores Schmidt, one of the North Powder teachers, is in La Grande this week taking the teachers' examination.

Mr. Mercer is home again after several months spent in Nevada on business.

Mr. McAllister and Mr. Avery visited North Powder on Tuesday, December 19, and gave their talks and displayed their pictures to an appreciative audience. The Bungalow theater was well filled. Several farmers drove in from the country in spite of bad roads and a cold night. Mr. McAllister explained the pictures in places where they needed explaining. However, they needed very little talk as they spoke for themselves. These pictures show the danger of tuberculosis to all kinds of domestic animals, especially cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens and the danger to the human race as well. Pictures of the baby beef industry with the help of the boys and girls. These pictures cannot but help all who saw them.

Mr. Avery made a talk after the meeting explaining his position in the matter and offering to bring in a government expert to make tests for the farmers on their cattle for tuberculosis in a short time and also offered to help organize a boys' and girls' club for the raising of prize stock. The sentiment seemed very favorable to both offers and later both will be acted upon.

Exhausted

The strained and exhausted condition of a champion winning a title event is shown in this picture of E. R. Wace finishing first in the famous Oxford Intercollegiate four-mile relay race. Wace represented Brazanose College. Note the exhausted condition of the runner's body, arms and legs.

These include Captain Harold Sorenson, Clarence Lomax, Ernest Burke, John Friel, Victor Harrington, Leon Sears, Lowell Schroder and Carl McCarty. These letter men are augmented by Burpee, Kelso, Anderson, Chandler, McCarty and Pickering from last year's freshman squad.

Burpee and McCarty appear to be the most promising candidates for center. Both are tall and rangy, ideally built for the pivot position. But neither possesses to a marked degree the knack of shooting baskets. Burpee played center on the fresh five last year. McCarty played the same position on occasion for the varsity.

Friel appears to be the best of the forward candidates, but Bohler is considerably worried as to who will be a suitable running mate for him. Hugo Schultz, star freshman forward last season, did not return to school this year. Bohler had tentatively selected Schultz for one forward position and his failure to return has rather disrupted the Cougar mentor's plans. Kelso also is a member of last year's freshman five, is a good shot, but he is handicapped by size and weight.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyley's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture was applied upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyley's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

FORESEES ERA OF UPBUILDING

Edgar Crammond, English Financial Scribe, Sees Era of Intense Development in Europe.

LONDON, Dec. 1 (By Mail).—We are entering a new chapter in the economic history of the world, a period which will, I believe, surpass in the intensity of its development the wonderful forty-four years preceding the Great War," said Edgar Crammond, an English financial writer, recently in the course of a lecture on "The International Financial Situation" to members of the London Chamber of Commerce.

"This country is called upon to undertake tasks of reconstruction and reconstruction has never carried before, and she is the one power organized and equipped to bring order out of the great chaos.

"Our two great duties must be," continued Mr. Crammond, "first, to secure the disarmament of Europe, and secondly, to solve the problem of reparations and inter-allied debts. Now that we have practically arranged for the payment of our debt to the United States, it might be possible to invite American co-operation with us in a policy of help and forbearance. To carry out these great tasks, it is essential that we have freedom from governmental control of the financial machinery of the country. The great joint stock banks, the Anglo-foreign banks, and the great British mercantile houses should now be allowed to exercise a greater influence in the shaping of our financial policy than they have enjoyed since August, 1914.

"If we can arrive at a friendly understanding with France," the speaker added, "we might be able to set up a single economic unit, and establish again the international financial system. If for one, look hopefully to the future. There is no finality to economic expansion, and viewed historically the great war is a part of the process of the economic evolution of the world. We have effected in four and a half years of war and four years of peace, progressive changes which would have taken perhaps two generations of peace to accomplish.

The modern woman fears no breeze; the wind whistles round her knees; her ankles do not mind the air, but how she does arrange her hair! If mother Eve were only here, she'd wear her fig leaf on her ear.

Glands Did It

No wonder he looks happy. John Roca, a 73-year-old prisoner in San Quentin, had a couple of goat glands attached recently. With his new glands, John felt so full of pep that he won a 50-yard race in seven seconds in a recent prison tournament.

PRICES HIGH IN KANATAK

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 26.—Prices paid in the good rush days of Alaska again are being charged at the new Alaska oil town of Kanatak, in the Cold Bay oil fields, where the Standard and Associated companies are planning to drill.

Pork and beans at Kanatak are $1.25 a plate and banks at the Kanatak road house cost the same. One reason for the high price is that Kanatak is on the open sea and all supplies must be sent ashore from the ship in lighters. It costs $10 a ton to get the supplies ashore and $3 to send a passenger to make the trip. Recently it was so rough at Kanatak that a vessel was unable to unload and returned with part of its cargo to Seward.

are "not in excess of five paid up subscribers."

The complaint alleges serious misrepresentation on the part of Smith regarding the printing plant at Myrtle Point, Oregon, and the two papers issued from there—the Southern Coast County American and the Powers Patriot. Bledsoe bought the plant and papers for $6000, paying $1500 down in cash. He alleges that $2000 would be a fair price for what he got. He asks the court, however, for the return of his $2000, for $300 damages and $110 to cover the cost of having his family and effects moved from Wallowa to Myrtle Point.

The complaint says that the "American" was represented as having a subscription list of 500. Instead, he
