THEATRES

SHERRY'S-TOMORROW, FRIDAY
"THE FOUR HORSEMEN"

Rex Ingram's $1,000,000 production of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," made for Metro, is announced by the Sherry Theatre. The screen version of Vicente Blasco Ibanez's novel that has been acclaimed in New York, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit and Los Angeles as marking a new epoch in the development of motion pictures. At its New York opening people paid $10 a seat. Critics said the picture had definitely established the screen not only as capable of rivaling the stage at its best, but of surpassing it in its grip upon the emotions. "The Four Horsemen" is the supreme expression of the Great War. Certainly no novel has stirred the universal appeal created by the human masterpiece. The book, now in its one hundred and sixty-sixth edition, has been read throughout the world. The monumental task of transferring it to the screen was accomplished by June Mathis who made a scenario that from all accounts has preserved the force of the original and in many incidents heightened it. But it is the director, Rex Ingram, who has apparently achieved the most sensational success. He is reported to have set a new mark in artistry of picturization. Through it all are galloping the four horsemen, spoken of by St. John in the Book of the Apocalypse—the grim figures of Conquest, War, Famine and Death.

The cast includes Rudolph Valentino, Alice Terry, Pomeroy Cannon, Joseph Swickard, Brinsley Shaw, Alan Hale, Bridgetta Clark, Mabel Van Buren, Brodwitch (Smoke) Turner, Nigel de Bruiler, John Sainpolis, Mark Fenton, Virginia Warwick, Derek, Ghent, Stuart, Holmes, Jean Harsholt, Henry Klaus, Edward Connelly, Georgia Woodthorpe, Kathleen Key, Wallace Berry, Jacques d'Auray, Curt Rehfeld, Mlle. Dolores, "Bull" Montana, Isabel Keith, Jacques Lanoe, Noble Johnson, Harry Northrup, Minnehaha, Arthur Hoyt, and Benetice Dominguez.

The photography is by John Seitz, and the technical direction by Amos Myers and Joseph Calder. Walter Mayo was assistant to Rex Ingram.

VERA GORDON IN POWERFUL DRAMA

Once more Vera Gordon is seen in the role of a mother in the Warner Brothers picture, "Your Best Friend" at the Arcade Theatre. It will be shown today and Thursday only.

The performance of Miss Gordon in this her latest picture is a masterful characterization. She is first seen in a modest home, a lonely middle-aged widow. Apparently without any knowledge of her son's doings, she is introduced to his wife. She welcomes the girl who is accompanied by her mother who immediately strikes the observer as a designing woman. And the observer is not disappointed in his opinion as the action progresses.

The ambitious son of the family takes his mother to live in an apartment on upper West End, an exclusive residential section. Here Mrs. Myers sees her hard earned cash being squandered by her daughter-in-law and mother who revel in gay parties and social teas. During the remainder of this film Miss Gordon is made to suffer all the pangs of a mother who lives mainly to see that her two sons are happy. Her true worth is finally appreciated, and in the course of this appreciation a wonderfully human interest drama is unfolded.

Belle Bennett, as the day society girl, Beth Mason, as the socially ambitious mother, Harry Benism, in the role of the young lawyer, Stanley Price and Dore Davidson, the latter is the kindly old bookkeeper, have been splendidly cast. "Your Best Friend" is entertaining and worth while seeing.

AT SHERRY'S—LAST DAY NOTED NOVEL FILMED

Marie Corelli's "The Young Diana" is Pictured.

Famed for his magic quality, the work of Marie Corelli, one of the world's most noted novelists, starring Marion Davies in "The Young Diana," is showing today at the Sherry Theatre for the last time. "The Young Diana" is one of Miss Corelli's most striking novels and it has been filmed with great elaborateness by Cosmopolitan Productions. The picture is released by Paramount.

Miss Davies in "The Young Diana" makes obvious her versatility as an actress. Seen recently as a young, young "flapper" in "Enchantment" and as a demure Irish girl in "The Bride's Play," the star enacts in "The Young Diana" a part of much dramatic intensity.

A noteworthy cast surrounds her, including Forrest Stanley, Pedro de Cordoba, Madlyn Arbuckle and Gypsy O'Brien. The picture was directed by Albert Capellani and Robert G. Vignola, two of the leading directors in the country.

Also showing "Keep 'Em Home."

"NERO" A TRIUMPH FOR EDWARDS

J. Gordon Edwards has achieved the biggest success of his career in his directing of "Nero," the William Fox super-special which comes to the Arcade Theatre for three days, starting Monday. To outdo in spectacular effect such master productions as "The Queen of Sheba" is to accomplish the unexpected. Press and public have agreed that this marvelous picture of the time of Nero has set a new record for mammoth and artistic photoplays. The mobs used in the burning of Rome and the other sensational scenes far outnumber any previous attempts of this nature.

Maine Cannot Grow Sugar Cane. Maine is the only state in the union where sugar cane cannot be raised. It grows there only a few feet high and the sap is not sweet. If all our cane sugar had to be raised in Maine it would cost about a thousand dollars a pound. Maine corn, on the other hand, is the sweetest corn raised anywhere.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation. Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.
