Distribution of Seeds—

Congressman N. J. Sinnott has notified the Evening Observer that he will make distribution of government seeds allotted to him this year through the papers in his district, as this method has proved so successful for several years in getting some into the hands of those who most desire them. Congressman Sinnott will also send seeds to any constituent writing directly to him at Washington, after they are ready for distribution after the first of the year. There will also be a few hundred flower seeds available for distribution.

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1.—A motion picture director at Universal City, near here, hired 800 extras Friday, to be used as the "audience" in the filming of a prize fight scene. In the excitement of the make-believe pugilistic fiesta, two of the hired spectators forgot themselves and came to blows. The fight quickly spread to the other 798 members of the "audience" and after the dust settled and a hurriedly summoned squad of police had herded the combatants into the street, it was found that the arena was wrecked.

PORTLAND HAS MANY CONTESTS

(By The Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Portland, Oregon, fared well this year at the hands of the Pacific Coast Conference football schedule makers, who gave the Oregon metropolis three big 1923 intercollegiate clashes. The games will be played on the grounds of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, not far from the heart of the city. The seating capacity of the field is to be increased. Portland's first conference game will be played October 27 between
