

PRACTICE COVE SYSTEM IN COVE

(Special to The Observer)

COVE, Jan. 2.—As the old year draws to a close and the new year approaches we see brighter, more cheerful looks on the faces of the passersby, not because of the loss of the old, but because the new promises so much better trade relations, reduced taxes and various and sundry other things that hold promises of cheer and perhaps better than all else, to wit the practice of Cove philosophy, "Day by day, in every way, I am getting better and better."

Miss Nellie Eckerley, who has been visiting here, returned to her home in Portland on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. B. Conklin and daughter, of Ontario, will return today after a brief visit here among friends.

Mrs. Edith L. Pease, who is interested in some society work in Pullman, Washington, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold Van Vleet, at North Powder, will spend a few days among her friends in Cove before returning to Pullman. She is accompanied by her son, Wallace.

Miss Grace Pease spent a few days including Christmas, with her sister, Mrs. Harold Van Vleet, at North Powder.

Emory Millman had the misfortune to injure his left hand when shopping wood. The fingers are badly lacerated and are extremely painful.

Miss Bess Kelley entertained the young ladies of the E. Y. D. club on Thursday evening. The occasion was a shower for Mrs. Guy R. Barker. Mrs. Barker, when she was Miss Emma Brown and lived in our little community last year, was an active member of this club, and on her return here as a bride, the young ladies honored her with a shower.

There were present, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. E. Musick, Mr. and Mrs. William Hallmark, Miss Bess Kelley, Miss Frances Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Barker.

Miss Leone Baxter has returned from a visit to Union.

Mrs. T. H. Conklin gave a small dinner on Thursday in honor of the bride couple, Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conley have been spending a few days in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Williams, of Gleichen, Alberta, who are visiting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams are spending a few days in Union.

L. B. Carter, who has been in La Grande for the past few weeks, is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hefty gave a small dinner on Friday evening in honor of their second wedding anniversary. Covers were laid for eight. The guests present were Messrs. and Mesdames T. H. Conklin, A. H. O'Brien, and G. E. Barker.

M. J. Duffy is transacting business in Elgin.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club on Thursday afternoon was attended by only eleven members. Mrs. E. B. Conklin was added to the roll. A discussion of the bazaar given on December 15 was found to have netted the club $147.22. The regular routine business was transacted and club adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dean have been on the sick list but are out again.

FRANK MORAN LOSES

PARIS, Jan. 2.—Marcel Nilles, the French pugilist, defeated Frank Moran of Pittsburgh on points for the heavyweight championship of France. Moran had been training faithfully for the bout. He tipped the scales at 192 pounds or seven pounds lighter than when he met Jack Johnson here in 1914. Nilles weighed 182. Nilles will be matched against Joe Beckett.

BOISE POSTMASTER NAMED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Louis W. Thrallkill was Saturday nominated postmaster at Boise, says the Idaho Statesman, in accordance with recommendation of Senator J. E. Horah, who selected him from among the three highest candidates recently passed in civil service examinations. The president also nominated Guy L. Toole as postmaster for Jerome.

SNOW FALLING IN THE PARK

(Special to The Observer)

THE PARK Jan. 2.—News has been received from Harold Boyle, who now is in the hospital in Aberdeen, Wash., telling that he had to undergo the third operation on his leg, which was amputated some time last summer after a sawmill accident. It is feared that blood poisoning may set in. All friends and relatives are hoping for his recovery.

J. Boyle, who broke his leg by a fall, is recuperating nicely and is now at Oros Bay, Wash.

J. W. Fay, the mail man, is somewhat over the tipping over of his buggy by an auto which skidded into him as they met. Luck is with Mr. Fay in that he has a gentle team. This makes the second run-over by autos he has experienced since he has been on the route.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillespie's two-year-old baby girl was very sick, necessitating the call of Dr. Gillespie from Union, on the night of Wednesday. Thursday morning she was improving nicely.

Ida O. Hunter has received the news from Mrs. Claude Wood that her mother, Mrs. Chambers, of Enterprise, was spending Christmas and part of the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Wood in Pullman.

The young folks on Lower Catherine Creek are going to a grand old time dance even at Zeek's hall at Union Thursday night. All of the Godsay family are going with the exception of "Ma" Godsay, who will stay at home and keep the home fires burning for the returning dancers.

Robert A. Hunter is returning to North Powder after spending the holidays with his parents at the Forks.

Up to the present time The Park can be reached very nicely by auto, by the Telephone-Medical Springs-Union road. But the snow is rather deep on the summit on the shorter route down Catherine Creek. Autos can come very well up to the old Park dock place at yet.

After a number of days of disconnected line of communication with the outside world the receivers are again clicking and phoning is the order of the day, as some kindly spirit was kind enough to repair the line somewhere close to town. Thanks to the kind-hearted party.
