LADD CANYON NEWS ITEMS

LADD CANYON, Jan. 4. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker came near receiving a Christmas present in the form of a seven and one-half pound baby girl, the little one arriving at the Grande Ronde hospital just four and one-half hours after Christmas had passed into history. The mother was formerly Miss Belle Council and the baby has been christened Marie Isabel. Both are doing nicely.

Miss Helen Peebler is truly the most popular girl in Ladd Canyon according to the number of Christmas presents she received, for she received several each day for a week before the Yuletide season. Although still bedfast she is slowly improving and able to keep busy at something all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peebler were host and hostess for a watch party New Year's eve to a few invited guests. All spent a delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beale and children Francis and Donovan, spent the holidays with Mrs. Beale's parents at Walla Walla. Miss Edna Mulholland of LaGrande spent a few days of her school vacation with Miss Marjorie Peebler. Mrs. D. W. Miller spent the holidays in Portland and Corvallis with her daughters, the Misses Amy and Ella.

E. B. Tucker spent Christmas and New Year's with his father at Medford, whom he has not seen for seventeen years.

Mrs. Mary J. Council spent the week-end in La Grande visiting her sister Mrs. Charles Turnbow and also her daughter, Mrs. George Tucker at the Grande Ronde hospital.

The community Christmas tree at the school house this year was a beautiful sight and contained a sack of candy and nuts for each adult and child and a gift and an orange for each child. The school teacher, Mrs. Joe Deal and the pupils rendered an excellent program, consisting of four dialogues, songs and recitations which the audience praised very much.

Mrs. E. T. Peebler was hostess to the Get-Together club last Thursday, December 28, at which time a bridal shower was given for Mrs. Raymond Brown, who was Miss Fannie Wilson of this neighborhood before her marriage a short time ago. She received many beautiful presents.
