

Right in the Midst of Things---

Just about this time of year everything one owns seems old. A new year seems to call for new clothes. There's no reason why there can't be a new frock when our January Sale prices them so attractively. Frocks of silk or wool, for parties and street wear are included in the selling, possessing the favored style features and fabrics of the season.

Extra Special

16-in. Unbleached Crash 12½c
Ladies' Pink and White Jersey Bloomers 35c

Men and Boys

Exceptional Values in This Department

Hill's Department Store

Society

Tuesday's meeting of the Neighborhood club was unusually well worth while and added a brilliant success to a year of excellent programs. Mrs. T. J. Serogin assisted by Mrs. R. J. Green very ably brought to their audience the charm, versatility and strength of Russian music.

As a bit of Russian atmosphere the first number on the program was a Cossack dance by Miss Mary Jean Thatcher. The stage was beautifully hung with tapestry and velvet, forming a rich and artistic background for the little premier danseuse.

Miss Ruth Quigley and her violin have become fast favorites with all music lovers and in her playing of Adante Cantabile and Valse (Tschai-kowsky) she repeated the success which has crowned her previous appearances.

Singing the "Farewell to the Fore-land" from the opera Joan of Arc, Miss Frederica Schilke, whose voice has long charmed, rose to heights of artistry. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lynn Wright.

Miss Edna Graham proved herself an excellent musician and pianist in her playing of three refreshing pieces, Berceuse (Bjinsky), Prelude in A (Gai) and Prelude in C Minor (Bachmanoff).

In his singing of two difficult numbers, "Thou Art Like a Flower" (Rubenstein) and "Song of Indian" (Arensky), Stuart Bennett showed himself an accomplished artist. His glorious voice with its tremendous range and strength was never more pleasing. Mrs. W. W. Berry accompanied at the piano.

With a certain agreeable charm and fine balance Miss Mary Jean Thatcher played "By the Sea Shore" an Etude in F Minor (Arensky).

Women of Moonheart Legion met at the home of Mrs. C. S. Shultz on E. N. avenue, Thursday afternoon, for the social meeting. The time was spent at needlework after which musical numbers were given and was enjoyed by all. Those present were Mrs. Agnes Crandall, Mrs. Jennie Lund, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. Chas. Crandall, Mrs. A. N. Mayville, Mrs. Marjorie Collins, Mrs. J. Kline, Mrs. A. N. Berger, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. E. S. Norris, Mrs. A. V. Fisher, Mrs. J. G. Stuart and Mrs. Edna McDonald of Yakima, Wash., who was guest for the afternoon. At the close of the meeting a delightful luncheon was served. Mrs. Don Shanks and Mrs. Frank Shanks assisted as hostesses for the afternoon.

The next meeting will be on the evening of January 11, and a social evening is being planned and all members are urged to attend.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood met Wednesday evening at the home of H. H. Taylor, on Washington avenue, in their regular monthly meeting. The attendance included a number of visitors.

Dr. Ray F. Murnby was the main speaker, delivering a talk on the "Religions of the World" and in the ensuing round table talk Earl Reynolds replied to Dr. Murphy.

The next meeting of the Brotherhood club will be held at the home of Rev. William Crosby Ross on Thursday evening, February 1.

A delightful shower was given at the home of Mrs. E. J. Shepherd in honor of Miss Alice Spencer, bride-elect, on Thursday evening. The evening was spent in playing "500" at the close of which a two-course luncheon was served. Miss Spencer was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

Miss Spencer will become the bride of Harry Gilmore of Portland, and her many friends wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

A joint recital will be given by Emil Eyer, tenor and Umberto Martucci, pianist, Thursday evening, January 11th, at the Star Theater. The program for the evening is as follows:

May Day Carol.....Deems Taylor
Valse Boatman's Song.....Bronberg
Molly Brannigan.....Stanford
Vieni sul Mar.....Martucci
Emil Eyer

Intermission.
Recondita Armonia, (from Tosca)
.....Puccini
Triste Ritorno.....Barthelemy
Je t'aime.....Massenet
Serenade Espagnole.....Bizet
Emil Eyer

Nocturne in F sharp major, Chopin
Arabesque.....Debussy
Valse Brillante.....Manna Zucca
Umberto Martucci

Love's Sunlight.....Caldman
Bird Raptures.....Schneider
What is Love?.....Martucci
The End of the Road.....Sanderson
Emil Eyer

E. E. Braug, A. C. Haynes and John Allen will be presented with 25 year veteran jewels Monday evening, January 8, by the Red Cross Lodge in appreciation of their long and faithful service to the order.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Evelyn Hearnshaw was the charming hostess at a very delightful party given in the form of a surprise farewell honoring Mrs. O. A. Kratz, who left La Grande Thursday morning for her new home in Astoria.

Mrs. T. R. Maxwell rendered several vocal selections. The table in the dining room was centered with a beautiful basket of pink sweet peas, and pink roses were used for decorative purposes in other parts of the room.

Milan Beauty

Maria Masperi has been chosen by the leading artists and sculptors of Milan as the most beautiful girl in northern Italy.

Mrs. John Theison, Mrs. Robert Eakin, Mrs. Andrew Loney, Jr., Mrs. H. G. Avery, Mrs. John O'Connell, Jr., Mrs. T. R. Maxwell, Mrs. S. S. Nye, Mrs. Harry R. Turner and Mrs. S. C. Smith.

Milton Stephenson of Spray, arrested December 24 on a charge of operating a still in his residence, pleaded guilty at Fossil and was fined $250 and sentenced to three months in the county jail.

During The Year of 1923

We have resolved to give the same excellent service, the purest drugs, the best values, and every advantage of good buying and a low overhead, on prices, that has characterized this store in the past. We hope to have as many NEW friends this year as last and we know that all of our old ones can testify to the quality of our merchandise, fairness of our prices and excellence of our service.

