UNION'S CITY DADS SWORN IN

M. S. Levy is Union's New Mayor; American Legion Post Plans Active Year.

UNION, Jan. 15. (Special). Our new city officers have been sworn in and the city has started out on its year's work. The new lineup is: Mayor, M. S. Levy; councilmen, F. B. Connor, Walter Cook, J. R. Jones, G. L. Hess, Harry McClay, and Geo. Seibird; recorder, L. Z. Terrell; marshal, D. A. VanHouten; street commissioner, C. E. Sherman.

At the regular social session of the Commercial club at the Union hotel last Monday evening, the club members and their wives, and lady friends, after the usual dinner, listened to a radio entertainment by Mr. Adler of Baker, who is installing radio sets through this part of the state.

Three of our young men have returned to their work in college. Scott Callahan and Neal Jones going to the O. A. C. while Emerson Hagerty went to the U. of O.

Will Baxter, in charge of the carpenter work on the gym, is making arrangements for a shingling, beginning as soon as the carpenters are ready for the shingling. According to the present condition of the work he will be ready for the job about the last of this week. The part of Governor Pierce's speech referring to law enforcement, especially in regard to bootlegging, was read from several of the local pulpits Sunday morning.

Legion Post Elects.

Union Post No. 50, American Legion, held a meeting at the Union hotel last Tuesday evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The new officers are: Sam Strine, commander; Charles Blatt, vice-commander; George Wolf, adjutant; Walter Harris, publicity manager; Adolph Lewis, historian. The election was preceded by a bountiful dinner and followed by the laying of plans for the year. Among the items for the year are: The building of a legion home, which will be a log structure; the management of a basketball team to take part in the La Grande league; the staging of a play by the members, part of the proceeds to be donated to the new high school gymnasium.

Miss Kofford Dies.

Owing to the funeral services of Miss Florence Kofford, a junior in the local high school, school was dismissed Friday afternoon and the student body attended the services. Miss Kofford died at her home in Union Wednesday, from pneumonia, which she had contracted after partially recovering from an attack of the flu. She was 16 years old at the time of her death. Miss Kofford was born in Wyoming and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kofford. She is survived by her parents, three brothers and two sisters, a number of other relatives and a host of friends. Funeral services were held at the L. D. S. church and were conducted by the local bishop, Mr. Kohler. The body was laid to rest in the Union cemetery.

Mrs. Eliza Nodine, an aged lady living in the eastern part of Union met with a painful accident last Tuesday afternoon, when she fell in the kitchen of her home and dislocated her shoulder. Medical aid was called and the shoulder was set, after which Mrs. Nodine was taken to Baker to be under the care of relatives. At last report she was getting along nicely.

No ice has been put up as yet and from present weather conditions looks as if the local businesses using this article will be compelled to depend upon North Powder for their supply next summer.

Mrs. Purcell entertained the members of the Woman's club at her home in North Union last Thursday afternoon. The usual program and lunch were in order.

After their defeat at the hands of the La Grande hoopers Friday night, the Union quintet went to Baker Saturday and played a game with the latter boys. Better fortune smiled on the Union team this time and they came home with the large end of the score, 22 to 12. The boys report a good game and the receipt of treatment at the hands of the Bakerites.

Very few changes have been made in the local schools in connection with the winding up of the first semester and starting out on the second half of the year. A small change, took the eighth grade examination and there will be several to enter high school, but there were no changes in the grade rooms.

Mrs. William Gutway is here from Baker the guest of her aunt,

DANCE AT IMBLER WELL ATTENDED

IMBLER, Jan. 15.—Miss Birdie Mc Coy went to Albert and danced over Sunday with Alton Oline Buckman. Owing to the ill illness of Miss Zalusky several passengers who were waiting here were somewhat delayed, causing them to miss connection with trains at La Grande.

Mrs. L. O. Neiderer and children went to La Grande Saturday. Oline Spiller left Saturday on a business trip to Portland and other coast cities.

Miss Lettie Algeo is now boarding with Mrs. Vernon Berry, having moved from the Hudson home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aftonberg were La Grande visitors over Sunday.

Several of the town citizens were out repairing the street and making a train on west main Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osborn spent Sunday at the I. A. Dingman home. The city councilmen met for a regular business meeting Wednesday evening.

Rev. Adrich, district superintendent of La Grande, held services at the Methodist church after the young

Two dances were enjoyed by our young people Friday night. After the basketball game young folks from both La Grande and Union held a dance in Smith's hall. The K. P. lodge was also sponsor for a dance the same evening.

Nolan Skiff, Jr., was over Friday evening to watch the La Grande-Union basketball game.

R. H. Rohrig was much improved and seems to be gradually regaining his health again.

Our men's chorus is getting in some good rehearsals under the direction of Will Baxter and expect to be ready for public performances very soon.

Factories in this end of the valley report that there is hardly any frost in the ground and plowing is in progress.

Edith Shappett bookkeeper for the Oregon Hardware store has developed into a clever window decorator. She has fixed up one of the show windows with fiber and partly manufactured rows showing all the processes in the manufacture of the article. The display is very attractive.
