The program of the Neighborhood club on Tuesday was a treat, especially for the lovers of good literature, when Mrs. L. B. Moe spoke on American Fiction, using Nathaniel Hawthorne, the first great American short story writer, and Joseph Herzhlemer, to whom some critics give first place of today's writers as types for comparison.

The music for the afternoon consisted of two numbers by the Ad club quartette composed of Messrs. George Birnie, Elmer Stuchard, Lawrence Dutton and Sherwood Williams which were most appreciated, proving this new group of singers are a valuable addition to the musical circles of La Grande.

The La Grande Country club was the scene of a very pretty dancing party Friday evening, when Mrs. Harley Smith entertained in honor of her daughter Miss Virginia Rate, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday anniversary.

The young folks gathered at the home of Miss Verla Rate where several cars were awaiting to transport the gleeful party to the beautifully decorated club house.

The girls were beautifully gowned in dainty frocks which blended harmoniously with the spirit of the affair. Dancing was in order from 8:30 to 10:30 when the guests were ushered into the dining room in the form of a grand march which was led by Miss Verla Rate and Reed Hubbard and was followed by nineteen more joyous couples.

Refreshments of delicious tea, fancy cakes and chocolate were served to the guests before their departure.

An especially interesting meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the American Legion was held Wednesday, January 17, when Mrs. George R. Vebrs was a charming hostess to the members at her home on Seventh street.

The regular business meeting was held, and several matters of importance were taken up. The ladies have planned to make a baby hygiene for the wife of one of the disabled veterans, and it was also planned to hold a candy sale on Saturday, January 27th, at Lily's hardware store.

Dr. Margaret Ingle was appointed chairman of the next social committee which will provide entertainment for the joint meeting to be held February 7th at the K. of P. hall. Mrs. Leona Chausse was appointed post historian.

The members of the Kaffee Klatch enjoyed a very pleasant evening Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Wood Berry and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson were joint hosts and hostesses to the club at the home of Dr. Richardson on O avenue.

Seven tables of cards were in action, with Mrs. W. R. Jones winning the ladies' prize, C. F. Newlin the gentleman's prize and Hal Robinson the guest prize. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening, Mrs. Richardson being assisted in serving by her niece, Miss Adelaide Ruth Clark.

The annual meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society was held last Wednesday evening at the Roman hall. The program started with a hot-buck supper, covers being laid for twenty-eight.

A very interesting report for the year was read after which an election of officers took place. Rose Kline, president; Iva Hug, vice-president; Margaret Riggs, secretary; Donaline Oxner, corresponding secretary; Jean Stearns, treasurer, Mrs. D. E. Neeroff of Eugene gave a short talk to the girls on the Near East situation, the result of which was the adoption by the G. F. S. of a little girl from that region to be named "La Grande."

Plans were developed for the annual Mardi Gras which is to be held February 24th. This is a money making affair, proceeds to be used for missionary work, the upkeep of the G. F. S. hall of the Albertina Kerr Nursery Home in Portland and their adopted Orient daughter.

An exceptionally pleasant evening was spent Thursday night at the regular monthly dance of the Country club.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reuter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Shurt, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bahnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bouvy, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Patman, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Green, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holm, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Wright, Fred Kiddle, Stewart Bennett and Joe Reynolds.

About seventy couples were present and Loney's orchestra furnished their usual high class music.

Leo Miller and wife, Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller will leave the 3rd of February for Atlanta, Ga., where Mrs. Miller will study music under some of the best teachers of the south and east.

They will be gone all spring and summer and will return in the fall when Mrs. Miller will reopen her violin and vocal classes.

La Grande will miss Mrs. Miller who has always been very prominent in social and musical circles.

Charming in all its details is the Scholarship Loan Dance to be given Tuesday evening, January 22, at Rex hall. This will be one of the outstanding social features of the season. Everyone in this way is given an opportunity to assist in a philanthropic work as well as enjoy a most delightful evening.

The proceeds are to be given to the State Scholarship Loan fund. From these funds girls needing financial assistance to complete their higher education are given loans. Several girls from La Grande have received loans.

The patronesses are Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. Robert Esko, Mrs. E. L. Meyers, Mrs. J. D. Lynch, Mrs. Earl Stoddard, Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne, Mrs. A. H. Hunter, Mrs. T. J. Serogins, Mrs. John Theison, Mrs. Lee Warnick.

for acting as installing officer. The ceremonies were followed by a social hour and light refreshments were served and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. J. G. Stuart on Jefferson avenue Thursday afternoon when the Women of Mooseheart Legion met for the social meeting. The time was spent at needlework after which Mrs. Stuart sang two vocal selections which were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Fred Smith gave a very interesting talk on "What I Saw at Mooseheart," and told of the home when on a visit there. Mrs. Jessie Fisher told of "Mooseheart" at Jacksonville, Florida, the home for aged Moose, and told of the buildings and the work "Mooseheart" there, which was interesting and everyone enjoyed.

The guest for the reception was Mrs. S. W. McLane of Vancouver, Wash.

Members present were Mrs. Agnes Crandall, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. L. A. Stoop, Mrs. D. Brannon, Mrs. Chas. Crandall, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. Jennie Lund, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Chas. Hanson, Mrs. J. Kline, Mrs. Frank Sharke, Mrs. Walter Bennett, Mrs. D. Charbonneau, Mrs. Marjorie Collins, Mrs. Clara Berger, Mrs. C. S. Shultz.

At the close of the afternoon a delightful luncheon was served. Mrs. Stuart was assisted by Mrs. A. N. Mayville and Mrs. E. S. Norris in hostess and all wore white caps and badges with the word "Mooseheart." The next meeting will be on the evening of January 25 at I. O. O. F. hall and all members are urged to attend.

The Annual ball given by the Volunteer Fire Department Wednesday evening at the Rex hall was very well attended and was a decided success. About two hundred couples were present to enjoy the excellent music furnished by Loney's orchestra, and until midnight, when the dance ended, the hall was crowded.

Union, Jan. 20.—The Lucky Thirteen club was entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. W. R. Phillips at her home in South Union. A fine luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock. The balance of the afternoon was spent in a social way and was highly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. G. R. Kerr, assisted by Mrs. Charles Beedingfield, Mrs. R. L. Norris and Mrs. Henry Hickey will entertain the Busy Bee of the Macca-bees at the home of Mrs. Kerr, 2007 Fir Street next Wednesday afternoon.

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church South met in a business and social meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Cain assisted by Mrs. Gauthier.

A very interesting program was rendered on the work in Mexico after which refreshments were served.

A silver offering was taken to be used in the mission work. Twenty-five were present.

Union, Jan. 20.—The ladies of the Caronian club were delightfully entertained Thursday of this week at luncheon at the new hotel by Mrs. Mae Hall. The meal, a delicious four course affair, was served at 10 o'clock, after which the members of the club spent the afternoon very pleasantly in the ladies' room, with sewing, visiting and plans for future good times. Every member was present—an unusual occurrence in these days of colds and grippe and flu.

Following the completion of the rectory adjoining the Catholic church the Altar Society and the ladies of the parish kindly supplied the wants of the same in a linen and kitchen shower held at the rectory last Wednesday afternoon. Among the many beautiful presents donated to the new rectory were bed sheets, pillow cases, hand and bath towels, wash cloths, glasses and vases, blankets, bed spreads and quilts, brooms, incense, glass globes, pans, cake plates, pyrex, tea kettle, tea pot, mixing bowls, double boilers, tea towels, breakfast cloths, table and dresser scarfs, table cloths and a number of center pieces and fancy work. Outstanding among the many beautiful presents were a pure linen table cloth donated by the Altar Society itself and also a most handsome silk quilt made by Mother Newlin whilst in her 84th year. Concluding the presentation, Father Loeser tendered his sincere gratitude for this and the many evidences of kindness he had received from the members of his parish and the people of our community and assured them it would be his pleasure to do all in his power to repay the devotion and kindness extended to him.

Three of the women's most popular skirt models are sketched above. One is fairly elaborate with its three tiers of flounces. This is intended to accompany a costume of fine elaboration. The second is more simple with any other blouse at all. One of them has side panels inserted. The other is as plain as a skirt can be. All skirts are wider and longer.

Hereupon a report covering the activities of the Altar Society during the preceding year was read and approved. Members, 90. Total receipts: $1535.28. Total disbursements, $1366.78. Balance on hand, $168.60. An announcement was also made that the Altar Society and the Girls' Society had purchased all the furniture and furnishings for the new house through the local stores and as soon as the same arrives an opening of the new house for the general public will be arranged. Thereupon, the house with its present furnishings was inspected from attic to basement and all expressed their great delight with the beautiful arrangement and facilities in the same. The ladies brought with them also their own refreshments and closed the afternoon with a two course luncheon.

Mrs. John McEwen will entertain the Eastern Star Social club Tuesday afternoon at the Masonic parlors.

The Loyal Daughters of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. W. Veeder, 502 Adams avenue, last Friday evening for their regular monthly business meeting. The class was reorganized for the year 1923 with the following officers elected: President, Flossie Veeder; vice-president, Hazel Perkins; secretary and treasurer, Nellie Daggett.

Following was a delightful social hour which was enjoyed by all. The girls carried out the plans for a "stinky" party to perfection. All came attired in fancy wearing apparel. The prize, for the "tackiest" dressed, was awarded to Hazel Perkins. Those present were: Blanche Rice, Marian Harris, Mildred Cates, Mildred Coman, Flossie Veeder, Lora Callison, Catherine Arlyne, Ina Noderer, Nellie Daggett, Maxine Pfeiffer.

The M. J. L. D. Bridge club met at the home of Miss Lizzie Little last Saturday. An enjoyable evening was spent in playing bridge, with Miss Daisy Duoley winning high honors.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess.

CHINESE PREPARE FOR SPORTS MEET

SHANGHAI, Jan. 20.—Chinese athletes of virtually all of the many educational institutions of the country went into training early in the winter in preparation for the Far Eastern Games of 1923 that are to be held in Japan next May.

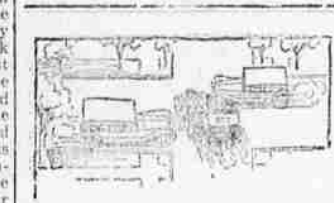

Elimination meetings at various points are to be held in the coming months and the final rounds of the national competition will be staged in April in Shanghai when the team that will represent China at the games will be selected.

In the earlier competitions the athletic materials in the South is wanting and it is announced that Hongkong and Canton will send a company of eighty-odd, including two women athletes applicants, to Shanghai next spring to compete in the final rounds here.

OWL LIKE PHILOSOPHY IS 'OWLED

(By Associated Press) SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 20.—John W. Talbot, of South Bend, who was recently elected Supreme President of the Order of Owls, says this: "Don't be down-hearted. Tomorrow is coming. 'Come what may,' bearing new opportunities, absorbing perplexities, time-lifting cares. And after that is coming a long train of tomorrow that bring the soothing opiate of forgetfulness that would gradually obliterate all memory of today's bitterness and pain. "Don't be discouraged by today's burdens of care and disappointment. Look ahead to the tomorrow with their solace and their joy. You are infinitely gifted. You have mind. You have the marvellous gift of thought. And, at the end of today and tomorrow you have the color of the evening sky. Priceless pictures hang in rich men's halls. Canvas on which the greatest artists have tried to fix the sun's glory but the sky nature shows you has defied reproduction and no structure, money built, can be compared with the space in which that sky hangs for you. And at the end of some tomorrow, that painted sky will cast molten light, of indescribable softness, upon a spot where you will forever rest. "Beyond the frost chain and the fever, "Beyond the rock waste and the river, "Beyond the ever and the never." During the annual convective of Fourth Degree members, the body controlling the affairs of the Order of Owls, the reports of the various State officers show the establishment during 1922 of 127 subordinate branches and an increase of 150,000 members. The policy of conferring pensions on needy widows, and caring for indigent orphans of deceased members and educating and training them for practical, useful lives, was approved. It was ordered, however, that or-
