Get Busy. The things that a man intends to do when he gets time never help him up the ladder of success.—Boston Transcript.

Entire Town Destroyed by Hurricane. With Exception of "The Old Homestead" Ganzey, N. H., is Levelled.

GANZEY, N. H.—A terrific wind-storm which swept through the valley almost demolished the town yesterday and practically the only building not destroyed was the Old Homestead on the farm belonging to Joshua Whitcomb. Seemingly, it was proof against the fury of the elements and while its neighbors suffered great damage, it remained almost unharmed.

This was particularly noticeable and was commented upon by all because it was situated with the return of Reuben Whitcomb who had been arrested for the theft of $2,500 from the safe of Ephraim Holbrook's store, a year or more ago, and having escaped jail in company of a tramp named Happy Jack, had been lost to his family and the authorities ever since. With him came Rose Blaine, formerly of this place, whom he discovered in destitute circumstances in the city.

It has just developed that Reuben was guiltless of the crime for which he was arrested and the money which his father had been able to return to Holbrook, the latter will restore. It is rumored that Reuben Whitcomb will shortly marry Ann, an adopted daughter of Joshua's and who was saved from death at Lover's Leap in the height of the great storm by her savior.

Happiness has come to the old homestead and even Ganzey will soon be restored. But the more seriously inclined attach a spiritual significance to the fact that the home of the Whitcombs refused to succumb to the elements—seemingly standing as a symbol of the greatest institution of civilization—the Home.

Paramount picture directed by Jess Cruise. Theodor Roberts, George Fawcett, T. Roy Barnes, Harrison Ford and Fritz Ridgway head an excellent cast.

THEATRES

NEW FOX SPECIAL IS STIRRING PHOTOPLAY

William Fox has disproved the theory that "there's nothing new under the sun."

In "My Friend the Devil," the Fox special production which opened a three days' engagement at the Arcade Theatre yesterday, he brings forth upon the screen a new type of entertainment at its initial presentation here.

It contains every element necessary for real entertainment—a novel plot, a powerful theme, unexcelled dramatic sequence, superlative portrayal, romance, thrills and a motive that will win the praise of every woman and child.

The photoplay is an adaptation from Georges Ohnet's famous novel "Le Flambeau" and to Harry Millarde must go the credit for another pictorial masterpiece. Mr. Millarde directed "Over the Hill," which is one of the triumphs of motion picture history.

The entire picture of "My Friend the Devil," has been correctly mounted and the types and costumes seem to step right from the pages of Ohnet's novel. Throughout the picture dramatic sequences follow one another in rapid-fire order, building up to a stirring climax.

The story deals with a man whose faith in God had been washed away when his mother is killed by lightning while he was little more than a child. He has called upon God to strike his brutal stepfather who was ill-treating his loving mother.

How the boy saves his faith in God is the subject of the picture. To Charles Richman as Dr. George Dryden must go the honor of contributing to screen literature one of the finest, most powerful dramatic pictures.

Peggy Shaw as Dr. Dryden's daughter, also gives a remarkable depiction of a difficult part. Others in the cast whose exceptional work demand mention are Bennie Grauer, William Tooker, Adolph Milner, Myrtle Stewart, Barbara Castleton, Mabel Wright, Alice May and Robert Frazer. The scenario was written by Paul H. Sloane.

AUSTRIAN CROWN HAS BECOME STABILIZED

(By Associated Press) VIENNA, Jan. 22.—That the Austrian crown will remain indefinitely about the present exchange value of seventy thousand to the dollar is the opinion of Austrian financiers.

The League of Nations plan for restoring Austrian finances provides that there be no further increase in the quantity of paper money in circulation, but it makes no provision for production. The quantity of paper issued is regarded as absolutely necessary for the normal working of business, since its purchasing power is something like 14,000 times less than before the war.

Eventually all bills of denominations of lower than a hundred will be eliminated. Even a hundred-crown note is of little use; it is scored even as a tip.

Austrian business is in such a tentative condition that any sudden rise in the exchange value of the crown would be a disaster almost equal to a sudden fall. Interior affairs, as well as foreign business relations, have gradually been adjusted to the abnormal relation of the crown to other money and it is considered best that it remain unchanged for the present.

Where thickness of a Hair Equals a Mile

THE hair of a human head averages from two to three thousandths of an inch, and if motor service shop work is based on accuracy so coarse as a "hair's breadth," only poor results can be obtained.

Automobiles may be designed alike, and look the same, yet one, because of precise fits, has more power, speed and less vibration. When pistons and cylinder bores are held to limits of one thousandth plus or minus, it means that often a piston .001 undersize goes into a bore which is .001 oversize; and in case of a three-inch piston, instead of having a wall clearance of .003 .001 for each inch of piston diameter) it has .005 and becomes an "oil-pumper"—an error of less than an average hair's breadth, yet, the results could have been no worse had it been a "mile."

Avoid errors as broad as a hair and for closely fitted pistons and perfectly ground cylinders have your repairmen bring your cylinder block to us for regrinding and piston assembling.
