ALL-STAR CAST IN MANSLAUGHTER

At the Arcade Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Worthy and orphaned Lydia Thorne is a speed maniac and constantly craves excitement. She gets it when she narrowly escapes death by speeding into the path of a locomotive. Then there is a gladiatorial combat and two young girls both in a regulation ring for the entertainment of Lydia's guests.

A traffic policeman, following her as she speeds along the highway crashes into her machine as it skids and is killed. Lydia is sentenced to three years in prison. Her "stretch" finds her doing scullion work until her former maid.

A super-production, interspersed with thrilling and interesting situations throughout. Manslaughter has an intense appeal.
