THEATRES

STORY IN BRIEF OF "MANSLAUGHTER"

Starting Today at the Arcade.

Lydia Thorne, a capricious wealthy girl, while speeding in her automobile, causes the death of a motor policeman, and is prosecuted by Dan O'Bannon, a district attorney, who loves her. O'Bannon is shocked by the gaiety of modern society and mentally paints a picture of the downfall of Rome. This tremendous epoch is shown in all its splendor. O'Bannon impersonating Alaric of Goth, and Lydia the most beautiful and profligate woman in Rome. Lydia's conviction of manslaughter through O'Bannon's efforts, and her sentence to a term in prison, enrages Lydia and when O'Bannon calls on her in the prison, she attacks him and collapses. In her delirium she fancies she has shot O'Bannon in the courtroom and when she recovers she realizes that she loves him devotedly. But O'Bannon, in remorse, dissipates, neglects his duties and gradually sinks into the depths. After her release she engages in humanitarian and uplift work. One night, O'Bannon, covered with snow, enters a coffee kitchen she has established and recognizes her, flees. She drags him back and tells him of her love. He reforms and two years later regains his prestige and is a candidate for governor. When told that Lydia, as a former convict, can never become the wife of a governor, he resigns his candidacy despite her protests and finds happiness in her love.

Poetic Conception.

No poem is born in the daylight; it can be written in the sunshine, but it is conceived in the silence of night.—Ibsen.

SHERRY'S—LAST DAY TODAY

"ABOVE ALL LAW" Twenty Tigers in Cast. Wild Reasts in "Above All Law" Play Important Parts.

Twenty sleek, tawny, man eating tigers are unannounced members of the cast of the Paramount picture, "Above All Law." Their pay consisted of three pounds of steak each per day, and if any actors ever worked diligently for their wages, these black and tan felines did. They put so much pep into their work that one of the leading men, who was required to go into their den and become closely acquainted with them, will carry souvenirs of the occasion for some time to come. The animals are cast in the roles of the favorite pets of an Indian prince and figure prominently in a revenge plot of the Hindus. The picture, which is one succession of thrilling action and lavish settings, shows the last time today. The cast is excellent. Comedy, "Breaking Into Jail."

ARCADE PRESENTS HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE BILL

The vaudeville bill at the Arcade yesterday was one of exceptional merit, and was enjoyed by the large audience to the fullest extent, if one can judge by the applause. Especially was the trio who presented the skit entitled "South Bend." The two male characters being exceptional dancers and the female member of the team being blessed with a melodious voice. Miss Dorothy Krause, the local girl, who presented her classical dances was also very well received and with a little more stage experience will be in a class with the best on the circuit. Taken as a whole the show was in a class with any of the vaudeville shows presented on the coast. The management promises that the shows will be of the same high standard and will undoubtedly be better as the season advances. Special attention is called to next Sunday's bill headed by that New York Saxophone Quartet with the renowned Saxophone artist, Jimmy Sutherland. You have undoubtedly heard him on any of the popular phonograph records. If the vaudeville bills continue to improve Meyers & Ford need have no fear that the people of La Grande will not support them.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have heard of such a remedy.—Adv.

Where thickness of a Hair Equals a Mile

THE hair of a human head averages from two to three thousandths of an inch, and if motor service shop work is based on accuracy so coarse as a "hair's breadth," only poor results can be obtained.

Automobiles may be designed alike, and look the same, yet one, because of precise fit, has more power, speed and less vibration. When pistons and cylinder bores are held to limits of one thousandth plus or minus, it means that often a piston .001 under size goes into a bore which is .001 over size; and, in case of a three-inch piston, instead of having a wall clearance of .003 (.001 for each inch of piston diameter) it has .005 and becomes an "oil-pumper"—an error of less than an average hair's breadth, yet, the results could have been no worse had it been a "mile."

Avoid errors as broad as a hair and for closely fitted pistons and perfectly ground cylinders have your repairmen bring your cylinder block to us for regrinding and piston assembling.

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

HELEN, I MET THE GREATEST DUMBBELL I EVER MET IN MY LIFE, LAST NIGHT AT THE DANCE! HE ASKED ME WHAT MY NAME WAS AND I DIDN'T WANT TO TELL HIM SO I SAID, MAY—THEN HE WANTED MY FULL NAME AND I TOLD HIM, MAYONNAISE AND HE SAID HE WANTED TO CALL ME UP.

I'LL BET NINE DOLLARS THAT'S HIM ON THE PHONE NOW—CAN YOU BEAT A BIRD LIKE THAT?

TELL HIM HE IS THE WRONG NUMBER.

HELLO— IS MISS MAYONNAISE THERE? I'D LIKE TO SPEAK TO HER.

MAYONNAISE IS DRESSING.

OH, IS SHE? WELL, I'LL CALL AGAIN, LATER.
