THEATRES

AT SHERRYS TODAY ONLY

Bert Lytell is Father and Son. Popular Screen Star Plays Two Roles In a Picture Full of Dramatic Suspense.

Bert Lytell, in "The Face Between," will be seen as the motion picture feature at the Sherry Theatre. This picture is a screen version of a story by Justus Miles Forman, made from a scenario by Lenora Coffee. It deals with the sacrifice of Tommy Carteret, a New York society man, who, to save the reputation of his poor father, becomes an exile in the Blue Ridge mountains, turning his back on everything that had made life worth while, even giving up the girl whom he had hoped soon to marry.
During his banishment a mountain girl falls in love with him, and, despairing of ever being able to return to civilization, he decides to marry her but she is shot by a jealous lover and Carteret himself is wounded. It would be unfair to those who are to see this picture to reveal the various complications which then result, and their final solution, but it can be said that this unusual and highly exciting story provides all the ingredients of the perfect picture. Bert Lytell enacts the roles of both father and son and makes the latter a character of infinite appeal.

A cast of unusual excellence supports Mr. Lytell in "The Face Between." Andrew Tournear, a beautiful seventeen-year-old blonde, playing her first important role, has the part of Carteret's fiancee, and Sylvia Bremer is the mountain girl.
Others are Hardee Kirkland, Girard Alexander, Frank Brownless, Burwell Hamrick, Joel Day and Dewitt Jennings.

ALICE BRADY COMING
Charming Paramount Star Will Be Seen in "Anna Ascends."

Alice Brady's new picture "Anna Ascends," the second she has appeared in for Paramount since her recent return from the legitimate stage, is scheduled as the feature at the Arcade Theatre Saturday only.
In the play, Miss Brady was declared by Metropolitan critics to have scored the greatest triumph of her stage career, and many of her admirers elsewhere assert that in the screen version of this romantic story, Miss Brady has registered her greatest film triumph.
The picture was directed by Victor Fleming, and supporting Miss Brady are Robert Ellis, leading man, David Powell, Nita Naldi, Charles Gerrard, Edward Durand, Florence Dixon, Grace Griswold and Fredrick Burton.

"EBB TIDE" EXCELLENT
When such screen stars as Lila Lee, James Kirkwood, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett, Noah Beery and Jacqueline Logan are featured in a picture excellent entertainment is sure to result.

This was the case with "Ebb Tide," a Paramount picture which was shown at the Arcade Theatre with success yesterday. For action and interest it has few superiors. Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Os-bourne's thrilling story has been transferred to the screen by George Melford with artistic results. The characters created by Mr. Stevenson are skillfully portrayed and the many scenes of suspense and thrills are of the kind that make the audience gasp. The photoplay is artistic, and in every other respect "Ebb Tide" is a cinematographic gem.
Tonight is the last night for "Ebb Tide."

HAVE DARK HAIR
AND LOOK YOUNG
Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.
Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.
A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

"The Flapper" with "Bringing Up Father on His Vacation" Friday Night Arcade Theater.

That past master of comic creation, George McManus, surely presented the world with a new ideal when he evolved Jiggs Mahoney as "Bringing Up Father" fame. Jiggs, as well as the rest of the types that have emanated from the fertile brain of Mr. McManus, already are an established American institution.
In other countries where fun is fun, wit is wit and where human nature prevails Jiggs has been accepted as a character one is apt to meet in any walk of life. Only a genius could conceive a type like that and to Mr. McManus should go all the credit. Ever since Jiggs made his debut on the stage he has been a universal favorite. This season Jiggs has decided to take a respite from the turmoil of "Father's" vocation will be shorter than expected.

Where thickness of a Hair Equals a Mile
THE hair of a human head averages from two to three thousandths of an inch, and if motor service shop work is based on accuracy so coarse as a "hair's breadth," only poor results can be obtained.
Automobiles may be designed alike, and look the same, yet one, because of precise fits, has more power, speed and less vibration. When pistons and cylinder bores are held to limits of one thousandth plus or minus, it means that often a piston .001 undersize goes into a bore which is .001 oversize; and, in case of a three-inch piston, instead of having a wall clearance of .003 .001 for each inch of piston diameter, it has .005 and becomes an "oil-pumper"—an error of less than an average hair's breadth, yet, the results could have been no worse had it been a "mile."
Avoid errors as broad as a hair and for closely fitted pistons and perfectly ground cylinders have your repairsmen bring your cylinder block to us for regrinding and piston assembling.
