Communication was established with Kansas City, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and many other broadcasting stations. A large crowd was in attendance. Dr. Heacock is in La Grande today as a guest at the Foley.

city of the founding of the first Rotary Club today. The Attorney General's message added: "It is every citizen's duty to have done his full duty and his responsibility for the administration of the law. No matter what the consequences, the law must be enforced. There would be little need for law courts."

"All men are not law-abiding and law-abiding. This condition would appear to imply that the individual citizen's duty extends beyond his own observance of the law. He ought to do something more than set a good example for the other man. The most helpful thing he can do is to make it known that he stands always on the side of the properly constituted law enforcement authorities, municipal, county, state and national. The peace and safety of our country depends upon this attitude of the individual citizen. Constitutional government is possible only by all citizens observing and obeying the laws enacted by the majority."

"Every American owes it to his country, himself and his fellow citizens, to make it known that he pledges himself to uphold the law and all those officials who have been lawfully chosen to administer it."

"RESPECT THE LAW" SAYS DAUGHERTY
 (By Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—The individual citizen's first duty is to respect the laws of his country, Attorney General Daugherty said in an axiomatic statement of the responsibility of the individual citizen for the operation of the courts and the administration of justice, as a part of a message on that subject to the citizens of the United States sent through Rotary International as a part of the observance of the eighteenth anniversary of the founding of the first Rotary Club today.

KANSAS ROUND-UP TO DRAW CROWDS

(By The Associated Press)
 KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 24.—Cattlemen from all sections of the United States will gather here March 12-22 for the sixth Annual Hereford Round-Up.

The event is an annual assembly of men engaged in producing the nation's beef supply. A four-day auction of registered Herefords is the magnet that draws the cattlemen here. It is held under auspices of the American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association.

In the Round-Up crowds will be sun-browned ranchers, South American ranchmen from Brazil and Uruguay, picturesque "cow men" from the plains and mountains of the United States, and rugged stock men from corn belt farms.

In 1918, when the first sale was held, the hard-working auctioneers disposed of 225 Herefords in ten hours, or one every two minutes. Last year, 471 head were sold with the same speed.
