

LADD CANYON ENJOYS PARTY

(Special to The Observer)
LADD CANYON, Feb. 28.—The fourth of the series of parties given by various committees of the Get-Together Club was held in Peesler hall Saturday evening, at which 36 people attended. The decorations were in keeping with Washington's birthday and the spacious hall was very beautiful with the large liberty bell hanging in the center, the red, white and blue streamers extending from it to the wall; a very large photograph of Washington overdraped with a huge American flag, the lights fringed in the three national colors and the two imitation cherry trees with their bright red cherries which were made of painted hazel nuts, in which the stiffer numbers were seated. A very good play entitled "The Family Album" was put on by the following cast of characters: Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lofland, Mrs. Tom Sherwood, Mrs. Bob Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tucker, Mrs. Clyde Hoppel, Edward Connell, Beth Murrell Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Sherill Ewin. The staging of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the congregation then followed, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, cards and games, and the serving of a two-course luncheon. The five ladies entertaining were Mrs. Chas. Lofland, Mrs. Geo. Tucker, Mrs. Clyde Hoppel, Mrs. W. O. Sherwood and Mrs. Sherill Ewin. The gentlemen of the neighborhood have decided on a party to "show" the ladies what they can do. The last party of the season will be given on St. Patrick's Day, the gentlemen's date will fall on March 21, and the ladies are wonderful, which it will be an Easter or an "all fools day" party, but, of course, the latter day is uppermost in our minds. Mrs. D. W. Miller entertained the Get-Together Club ladies on Washington's birthday in a very fitting manner, the afternoon being devoted to tributes to Washington read by the various ladies and a piano solo by Mrs. Clyde Hoppel. As it happened to be the hostess' birthday, Mrs. Chas. Lofland, the president, with a few well chosen words presented her with a beautiful potted plant as a token from the members. Mrs. Chas. Lofland showed her talent at poem-writing when she gave "A Happy Birthday." Very nice refreshments were served. Reginald Hergford is having a comfortable home built on the White Pine and Box factory site, where he is employed.

Some of the out-of-town people who attended the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lon Ayres, of Cove; Miss Lila Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Masterson, Ed Dunn, Mrs. Ben Colver, Mrs. Guy Miller, all of La Grande; and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Campbell, of the foothill.

HEMLOCK PRICES HIGH
(By Associated Press)
ABERDEEN, Wash., Feb. 28.—Lumbermen here are exulting in the highest price that hemlock logs have ever reached. In the past, hemlock has been made the bone of timber owners, because prices were low and demand short. Now the best grades of hemlock logs are bringing $18 a thousand feet, and the best hemlock lumber brings $27 a thousand.

(By Associated Press)
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 28.—Owing to the cosmopolitan nature of its pupils, children of parents who came here from Japan, Mexico, China, Italy and many other climes, the Lincoln public school of Sacramento has adopted a pledge of allegiance that differs somewhat from the pledge given by children who attend schools of strictly American or American-born children.

The Magic Word

is "Karo" for breakfast. Highest quality—full weight cans—lowest prices and most delicious on pancakes, hot biscuits and for making gingerbread. Nothing better as a spread on bread for children.

Do you know how to make Waffles?
2 cups Sifted Patent Flour
4 teaspoons Baking Powder

3 Eggs

Mix together all dry ingredients. Beat egg yolks, gradually add milk and mix well. Stir liquids into dry ingredients and mix well. Cut and fold in whites of eggs beaten stiff. Have waffle iron hot and oiled with Macele. This makes the medium sized waffles. Serve with Karo Syrup.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—Officials of the University of Southern California have written J. Fred Bahler, of the Pacific Coast Conference, at Fullman, Wash., asking the possibility of advancing the date of the conference track and field meet one week from May 26, so that conference schools may send teams to this meet and also to the L. C. A. A. A. championships which will be staged in the east on May 25 and May 26, according to Gwynn Wilson, U. S. C. graduate manager. The Trojans desire to enter both meets, said Wilson, and it is reported that the University of California also is considering such action if the conference date is moved up.
