

SNOW TEN FEET DEEP AT PARK

THE PARK, Mar. 2.—The young and old people of the Park, who attended the entertainment given by the Big Creek school on Washington's birthday, report an overwhelming success, in a social way, as well as financial benefit to purchase the water fountain desired.

Joseph Lay and family went to the J. G. Cack school entertainment on the 22nd.

Ida O. Hunter reports a fine time at the masquerade ball in Union, the 22nd.

It is reported that the Jacobs and Heas mill and logging operations at North Powder have closed for the remainder of the winter.

L. F. Ingram, logger, who was hurt at his work at North Powder, is again well and active at his home in Union.

Mrs. Cedric Gale and her baby are getting along very well. She is receiving her many friends who come to admire little Julia Louise, the "cutest little thing ever."

Kenneth Vanorder was noted among the entertainers at the Big Creek social on Washington's birthday.

The Park people are certainly in sympathy with Lew Fink, who lost his house by fire last night at the "Little Park." The report is to the effect that the family lost everything they had in the house.

Mrs. Neva Greenwood from Union is visiting with her mother, Mrs. S. Godsay.

John B. Hunter received a letter from J. A. Olson of Powers, Oregon, stating that times are prosperous in Powers. Mr. Olson is an old time prospector and miner.

News from C. N. Syp of Portland, to the effect that he will locate in Baker some time in April, reached here yesterday. He may come and care for a band of sheep on the Catherine creek range this summer, he asserts.

Clarence Vanorder butchered three fine hogs for his own use. Mrs. Vanorder put up a nice lot of home made sausage.

Bert Titus is sawing wood with a drag saw for Frank Wigglesworth of Raymond.

Mrs. Ida M. Hunter received a letter from her sister, Mrs. Clara Cates, of Tacoma, Wash., stating that her boy, Kill Cates, had his leg and foot smashed in an accident, the details of which were not given, and may result in an amputation. It is hoped that the injuries are not so serious as the letter indicates.

At a point up on the Main ridge, at an altitude of 5,000 feet, the snow is 10 feet 4 inches deep. But this is not an unusual rate. Though it is believed that the ground being not frozen when it was first covered with snow, will retain the most of the water which will be so beneficial for the low lands later during the winter.

VILLA LOSES TITLE

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—The American flyweight boxing championship title returned to its native shores Thursday night in historic Madison Square Garden, where a capacity crowd saw Frankie Genaro, who won it from Pancho Villa, the Filipino, who won it from Johnny Buff in Brooklyn last summer. The decision was of the hair line variety. Newspaper critics at the ringside were divided in their opinion. Those who favored it were not enthusiastic and those against it were bitter in their denunciation.

DOPE CURE SUCCEEDING
(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Mar. 2.—One hundred and ten narcotic addicts "taking the cure" under police supervision at the Lincoln Heights stockade here, have gained an aggregate of 750 pounds in weight since beginning the treatment, according to jail officials.

LADD CANYON WEATHER FINE

LADD CANYON, Mar. 2.—The beautiful spring weather is making Ladd Canyon people feel like getting ready to make gardens and get the crops into the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ayer were visitors at the home of Mrs. Ayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton last Friday.

Miss Lisa Bean spent the week end with Marian Miller and attended the party Saturday night.

Mrs. Ayres of Cove was a week end visitor at Mrs. E. T. Peckers and attended the party Saturday night.

Guys Miller drove over from Baker Sunday, returning Tuesday.

The Misses Lofland and friends were visitors at the Lofland home Sunday.

The Get-Together club was entertained by Mrs. D. W. Miller Thursday. A short program was the feature of the afternoon, which consisted of piano solo, Mrs. Clyde Hopple; The Life of Washington, Mrs. George Hilton; Poetry on Washington, Mrs. William Sherwood; Song, Columbia, Mrs. H. W. Feeding; Mount Vernon, Mrs. R. L. Mouch; and Washington and Mrs. Miller's birthday by Mrs. Claude Deal.

The usual business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. C. W. Lofland. The club presented Mrs. Miller with a beautiful house plant as a birthday present, which was gratefully received. Messrs. Clyde Hopple, George Hilton and James McClure were present at the luncheon. The gentlemen are always welcome visitors. Misses Lola Hamilton and Helen Austin were also visitors at the club and assisted both Mrs. Miller in serving. Thirty-two were present to enjoy the afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Sherrod, Friday.

Mrs. E. Johnson is at Atleed visiting relatives who are seriously ill.

The George Washington party given at Peckers' hall Saturday was a great success in every way. Mrs. Clyde Hopple was chairman of this committee and was ably assisted by Mesdames Sherwood, Lofland, Tucker and Ewin. The hall was decorated in the national colors. A play "The Photograph Album" was presented and brought forth much amusement as the different poses appeared in person. After the playing the national anthem was sung, dancing was enjoyed by the young folks and cards and a social time by those who did not dance.

PROTEST ANSWERED

TOKYO, Mar. 2.—To a protest of the Chinese government that Japanese police are stationed outside the Chinese consulate in Shanghai, contrary to the Sino-Japanese treaty, the Japanese officials declare that owing to conditions at that port it is necessary to station the police for protection of Japanese residents.

UNITED STORES

The LEAD conceded SKAGGS STORES in the business of Selling Groceries is by no means an accident, as perhaps considered by some. Careful and wasteless store management, long hours of hard work, with a willingness and genuine desire to SERVE and SERVE WELL. As an organization, our sales volume and purchasing advantages are much greater than most concerns, our sales per store unit, and per man unit are many times that in ordinary stores. These principles and methods that are so largely responsible for SKAGGS PRICES were not acquired from GOOD LUCK or by ACCIDENT, but by thorough knowledge and understanding of economical food distribution with practical application. These factors distinguish SKAGGS STORES, distinguish SKAGGS SERVICE and distinguish SKAGGS PRICES from the ordinary.
