SHERRY'S—LAST DAY

No more curls or wavy hair, such as Gloria Swanson's device.
This radical dictum, coming from the paramount star who is re-considered as one of the best dressed women of the screen, is another thrust at the flapper-like styles which have predominated for so long a time.

The general trend in new fashions has been towards the severe. The baby doll style of dress has given way to the more classic, dignified lines. The high waist-line has dropped to the hips, or been obliterated altogether; the short skirt has been replaced by the ankle length gown; bobbed hair has become suddenly popular.

But Miss Swanson now carries the reaction one step further and takes the curl out of her hair. The curling iron and the waver have been laid on the shelf, so far as she is concerned—temporarily at least, and for her characterization of the American girl in "My American Wife," her latest starring vehicle, coming to the Sherry theater for the last time today she leaves her hair absolutely straight when dressing it into the various coiffures.

Those who have seen the new hair-dresses which she wears in this picture, declare them stunning. The new coiffures are original, being worked out by Miss Swanson and Hattie, the studio hairdresser. One in particular, which is especially striking, is known as the "Turban." It is made with the aid of a jet and brilliant hair ornament, the straight roll of hair being brought around her head in a sort of turban roll.

Larry Semon in his latest hit "The Agent," is also being shown.

score tied at 18-18; then Elgin resulting in a point on a foul, then Union capturing a field basket, the last only 45 seconds before the whistle blew. Final score was 29-19. The only regrettable feature of the game was a misunderstanding about one of Elgin's players being allowed to re-enter the game after he dropped out. Union claims that the referee first ordered him to not re-enter the game, and later reversed his decision after talking the matter over, and Elgin claims he never told them that Tucker could go back into the game. Their coach announced that he intended to enter a written protest.

JOSEPH COUPLE
CELEBRATE THEIR
50TH WEDDING YEAR

JOSEPH and MRS. MARY COUPLE celebrated their 50th wedding year last evening at the Elgin-Union basketball game.

Ralph Morgan, agriculture teacher in the high school is sick. He is not able to get out to his classes or to coach his high school boys for their last few basketball games of the session.

Mr. McManis, who had been confined to his home with neuritis, but was up again, had a relapse last week and the first of this week had to be taken to the hospital at Hot Lake.

Principal E. D. Towler of the La Grande high school was over last Monday to see Prof. Conklin in regard to the La Grande-Joseph game.

Miss Cooke, demonstrator from the O. A. C. spent Wednesday and Thursday with the ladies of Union giving them instructions in the art of dressmaking. All-day sessions were held at the high school building.
Nearly 40 came out to the meetings.

John Hough, high school teacher who has had charge of the debating teams of the high school, was host to the four ladies competing in the tournament at a 4 o'clock dinner at the Union Hotel last Monday night. The debaters were: Misses Georgianna Jensen, Josephine Bliss, Audrey De-Lap and Vera Shaw. After the dinner they joined in a private dance which was being held by the Wright SISTERS.

Union and Elgin played a game of basketball on the local floor last Thursday night. Elgin started out with an early lead and during the entire first half seemed to have the game all their own way. Union ac-cusedly failed to hold the ball even when they were fortunate enough to secure its possession. They didn't seem to wake up till the second half was partly over and then they started a rally somewhat like La Grande is in the habit of doing when they are behind. The last few minutes playing were fast and furious with the
