Somebody ought to get a pocket edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica to go with the pocket typewriter.

What one of La Grande's Indies says of the Germicide and Dandruff problem that is prepared by Silverthorn-Wright's Family Drug Store: "Mr. Silverthorn: Please send to my address, 2104 Third street, one bottle of your Germicide and Dandruff eradicator. I want the bottle for a friend of mine that has dandruff and scalp eczema. This germicide has stopped my husband's hair from falling in less than 10 days and he had much trouble with his hair until he got this preparation. It has also stopped his dandruff trouble. You may use my name with pleasure. In recommending this wonderful preparation, Mrs. N. E. Eppmott."
