THEATRES

SHERRYS—TODAY ONLY

There are laughs galore in "Thirty Days," Wallace Reid's last Paramount starring feature, and it moved a large and appreciative audience to great merriment last night at the Sherry theatre. It will be presented there for today only.

The picture is a melodramatic farce comedy, adapted by Walter Woods from the play by A. E. Thomas and Clayton Hamilton. Its situations are humorous, and James Cruze, the director, evidently found no necessity of straining for laughs, for there is none.

Mr. Reid has the role of John Cadwalader Floyd, a wealthy young man, pleasant, harmless, and too sympathetic. His sympathy for human distress in any form causes John no end of trouble. First, his sweetheart threatens to break their engagement because of the "sympathy" John displays toward a great variety of other charming women.

She calls his interest flirting and puts him a month's probation. Then John, while engaged in charity work, is seen by a murderous Italian apparently kissing his beautiful wife. Again it is only sympathy on John's part, but the Italian thinks otherwise. He swears to kill John, and his pursuit becomes so hot that John goes to jail to avoid being murdered.

His activities in the jail are highly entertaining. Whether from the angle of star, story, director or cast, the picture is a worth-while one. In the cast are Wanda Hawley, leading woman, Charles Ogilvie, Cyril Chadwick, Herschel Mayall, Helen Dunbar, Carmen Phillips and Kaila Pasha.

Billy West in his 2 reel comedy, "The Hobo," rounds out an excellent comedy program.

"THE FLIRT" IS COMING—This "Flirt," both Harkington's vivid cross-section of American home life, will be shown at the Arcade theater beginning Thursday. It is offered by Carl Laemmle as a Universal-Lewel dramatization of a famous novel. Hobart Henley directed it at Universal City. Eileen Percy, Helen Jerome Eddy, George Nichols and ten other notable players give a powerful characterization of this masterpiece.
