Easter Suit Fashions for Men

In the first place, men's Easter suits must be smart—a smartness accentuated by fine fabric, correct cut and perfect fit, all of which are embodied in the suits we are showing and which have been given such wide favor for spring. Plain colors, mixed weave and stripe effects. Expert tailoring and an unusual care of detail assures long service in Fashion Park and Kirschbaum Clothes. For class and fit Fashion Park clothes have no equal.

A group of friends and relatives completely surprised Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Standley when they gathered at their home last Sunday, March 18, to help them celebrate their 54th wedding anniversary.

A lovely three-course dinner was served promptly at 1 o'clock which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Standley and children, Mildred and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson and children Anita and Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Van Long of Imbler, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clark of Alicel, Mrs. Jennie Greiner, Mrs. Eunice Gilbert, Mrs. W. M. Evans, Geo. Evans and children Zelma and Cleo, Mrs. Lodema Terry, Mrs. Alice Sandoz and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Durland and daughter Ruth and Miss Syville Pratt. Mr. and Mrs. James Standley are old pioneers in this valley, having settled here in the year 1864.

A radio party which brought exquisite entertainment to the guests was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Williams on Y avenue Monday night. The mysterious radio brought in beautiful concerts from far eastern points as well as a number of Pacific coast cities. The vocal selections were very fine and the entire evening was enjoyed by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walden, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. William Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Watson, Mrs. Henry Plass, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kendall and Robert Bratt of Baker. Refreshments were served during the evening but attention constantly rested on the radio and the only intermission was when the large stations would shut down for the "listening in" period of two minutes each quarter hour which is a ruling of the government.

Last Saturday Wayman Scott had a birthday. It is a habit boys have, but this was a particular birthday for Wayman was 16 years of age. His mother, Mrs. Cora Harding Scott and his grandmother, Mrs. Harding, decided to have a dinner for him and to his surprise he came home from work to find the home all messed up with boys whom he runs with. The dinner was served to the coming men of La Grande in a way that caused them to forget the "soft pedal" in singing its praise and the Harding home was then given over the birthday frolic of the youngsters. During the evening Wayman's uncle, Charles E. Harding of the United States National bank, presented him with a beautiful trumpet cornet and the entire party joined in extending Wayman congratulations on the present and wishing him the customary well wishes for more birthdays. The boys present were Robert Smith, Raymond Meyerstick, Raymond Griffith, Paul Meyers, Douglas Moe, Norman Jessie, Gifford Seitz, Lester Brownton, Sam Cochran, Bernard Theison, Wayman Scott and Jack Dennis.

Walter Stone of Colfax, Wash., writes Silverthorn-Wright's Family Drug Store for Germicide and Dandruff Eradicator as follows: "Mr. Silverthorn, you will remember me when located in La Grande, some 10 years ago. You sold me a few bottles of your Germicide and Dandruff Eradicator, that absolutely cured the worst case of eczema of the scalp possible. My hair had all fallen out. I had tried doctor's prescriptions for this trouble and all had failed. I had tried all kinds of hair preparations, and none did any good. I now want two bottles for a friend of mine that has a similar trouble to what I had. Please send at once. Find enclosed $2.00 in payment for same. This germicide cured my troubles in a few weeks and it has never bothered me since. Walter Stone, Colfax, Washington." 3-20-tf
