RATES LOOK GOOD TO FANS

9 Cagers to Get Basketball "L"

Pirates, otherwise known as La Grande baseball team, will not have the strongest of this season that they have must in a decade. At least that is way they look on paper now and res don't lie. With both Cove La Grande willing to organize our team Union-Baker county league and both Union and Baker anxious to have a high class of base this year, things look bright for diamond fans.

The features of the banquet will be the awarding of basketball letters, Captain Glenn Metcalf, Bernard Hummel, Ray Lynch, Robert Garrity, Floyd Smith, James Coker, Owen Price, Clifford Blokland and Joe Paik will receive the athletic tokens. Following the awarding of letters a captain will be elected for the 1922-23 season.

The La Grande high school basketball team, runners-up to the champions of this district, with a record of eleven district games won and but three lost, will gather together for the last time, Thursday night. Accompanied by their lady friends, the Blue and White Hoopsters will gather at the Country club, first at a banquet and then at a dance, officially ushering out all but memories of the past season.

PENDLETON, Mar. 21.—Roy Fulton of Minneapolis, brother of Fred Fulton, rangy heavy of national repute, has been signed to fight Earl Newquist of this city as a special six-round event on the big card to be staged Monday night at Happy Canyon. Fulton is now in Pendleton. He tips the scales at 167 and Earl Newquist will go into the ring weighing slightly less than 170.

SHKI CHALLENGES MCFIGUE
LONDON, Mar. 21.—Battling Shki, defeated by Mike McFigue in Dublin last Saturday, has challenged McFigue to another bout, according to Sporting Life. The wager mentioned by Shki is 5000 pound sterling a side, winner to take all. McFigue expressed a willingness to accept Shki's challenge, the article says. If the promoter of the fight puts up a purse in accordance with McFigue's expectations, which he declares are reasonable.

LYNCH OUTPOINTED

CHICAGO, Mar. 21.—Joe Burman, Chicago, outpointed Joe Lynch, world champion bantamweight here Monday night in a 10-round no-decision contest, the first big boxing match held in Chicago since the memorable fake match between Joe Gans and Terry McGovern, 10 years ago. Burman was credited with six rounds, Lynch two, and two were even.

COLLEGE BOXERS CLASH SATURDAY

(By Associated Press)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., Mar. 21.—Members of the Stanford boxing and wrestling teams are working out every night in preparation for matches with the University of Southern California to be held on March 24. Nine boxers and six wrestlers will participate with the Trojan in the coming tourney. It is planned also to stage a tournament with the Los Angeles Athletic club while the Stanford men are still in Los Angeles.

The boxers who were picked to meet California prior to the calling off of the matches by Dr. W. H. Borow of the Stanford physical education department in a protest against mixed bouts, will probably make the trip, although Coach Harry Mahoney has made no definite statement. Those who seem assured of places are Lane, Ross, Armbruster, Robinson, Lewis and Van Hook.

McELROY'S TO GIVE DANCE HERE SOON

McElroy's orchestra that played here last fall to the pleasure of all local dance fans and lovers of good music, have been on a tour of the east, and have been playing in all the leading cities in that part, and now they are on their way back home to Portland. They will stop in La Grande and give the people of this city a treat to real music. From the records and reports of eastern papers they will more than keep their good record.

The members of the orchestra that are featured are Monte Austin, famous light tenor singer who made himself famous as a singer at the Tower of Jewels at the last World fair, and Sylvester Premier, accordion soloist, of the Pacific coast. Other members of the orchestra are Eddie Swarthout, Pack Holton, piano; Al Zolner, cornet; Stubbs, "Tracy," drums.

TIRE AND CASING STOLEN FROM CAR

Sometime during the O. A. C. Cadet Band concert held in the high school auditorium last evening, someone stole the tire and casing from a Ford sedan belonging to Joe "Skeet" Reynolds, according to a tale of woe he tells today. Although he hasn't reported the matter to the police he states that "I would at least like to have the casing returned and the returning of the tire would also be appreciated."

"Children whose faulty judgment is congenial are not hopeless," says a physician. Not while the world has need of umpires.

PRYKE PRAISES 'Y' CONFERENCE

A. E. Pryke who recently returned from Portland where he attended the Y. M. C. A. convention on Wednesday, reports a very successful meeting. Probably one of the most outstanding results of the convention was the feature talk given before thousands of people in the big auditorium when John H. Mott, one of the most prominent laymen readers in the world, addressed them. He talked on international relations and discussed Russia as a nation; he presented his remarks with the idea that bolshevism is not entirely devoid of constructive program, but that about one-twentieth of it holds great ideas and nineteen-twentieths is of destructive nature. "The deplorable conditions of the world at this time can only be remedied through Christianity and brotherly love, not only between individuals, but between nations," said Mr. Mott. "International good will come through the principle of 'Love thy enemy' even going so far as to love the Turk. The Y. M. C. A. is one of the greatest organizations of young men that the world has ever known."

U. C. STUDENTS IN DEADLY GAS

(By Associated Press)
BERKELEY, Cal., Mar. 21.—The Lawson Adit, the experiment shaft back of the mining building of the University of California, is filled each day with deadly, poison-gas and the students of the College of Mining enter the shaft with gas masks to conduct rescue work under the exact conditions prevailing in mine disasters.

The work is being conducted under the direction of R. B. Hecox, of the United States Bureau of Mines. The work, Hecox says, will be invaluable to the students when they get into real mine work.

Prof. E. H. Probert, dean of the College of Mining, says the value of the training these students are getting was well demonstrated at the Argonaut mine disaster in Jackson on August 27, 1922.

"A number of our students took their equipments and did some heroic work at the Argonaut mine," said Prof. Probert. "Rescue training is required before a student can be graduated in mining."

There are more than forty junior students getting the training this

EASTER CHIMES ON MOUNT RUBIDOUX

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Mar. 21.—Easter will be ushered in with chimes again this year at Riverside' annual sunrise services on Mount Rubidoux. From the throats of bells mounted high on the mountains, near the cross which tops the summit, the notes of old, familiar hymns will float over the valley as pilgrims from every part of Southern California thread their way toward Rubidoux in the hours preceding dawn.

Other features of the sunrise service this year will be solo, the singing of Easter songs in chorus appropriate religious readings and prayers, and the reading of Dr. Henry Van Dyke's poem, "God of the Open Air."

HALE IS MARRIED

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 21.—J. F. Hale, complaining witness in the Oregon night rider case was married here March 17 to Roberta Pearce, also a complaining witness in the trials. Hale said he intended to go into business here and would not return to Medford.

"It's difficult to get a poor picture when the new Anso Film is used."

THE chief cause of poor pictures is under-exposure or over-exposure. (Figures prove it.) Now comes the new Anso Film with a remarkably wider range of exposure. It adapts itself to dull light and bright light to a degree unknown with film of the past.

Don't be satisfied with poor pictures. Buy a roll of Anso and learn for yourself what this Anso achievement means.

RALPH HURON,
Commander La Grande Post
American Legion

U. G. Couch, county judge and juvenile magistrate, to the citizens of Union county and especially to those interested in the good work being carried on in this county by the Red Cross organization.

By reason of having occasion to call on Mrs. Cathlin, Red Cross secretary, quite frequently for her assistance and advice on juvenile work, also for her personal investigation on indigent applications for county relief, I feel well qualified to pass intelligently on the sincerity in which she enters into the many difficult problems which she encounters in the Red Cross work, and the volume of work she accomplishes for the unfortunate and distressed people.

Without any hesitancy I fully agree with many others who understand the good being accomplished through the organization, that the money required to finance the work is well spent.

A. C. Haynes, Chief of Police: "The Red Cross means more to the police department in La Grande than any other society. At all times of the day or night we feel free to call upon this organization and we have never yet called Mrs. Cathlin that she did not help us, regardless of the hour or of her personal conveniences. We could not get along without the Red Cross. I don't think the people at large appreciate the Red Cross as much as the police department. When we get in trouble with boys or girls we have to call on Mrs. Cathlin to help us out and I will say that Mrs. Cathlin has never failed to come to our rescue."

EVERYBODY BENEFITS EVERYBODY SHOULD HELP

Ralph Huron, Commander of La Grande Post No. 43, American Legion: "The most valuable organization in existence today to disabled ex-service men is the American Red Cross. The American Legion is doing its best for service men, and we are proud of our record of things accomplished. But in the matter of preparing the enormous amount of evidence required by law to connect disability with service, without the Red Cross the task for the Legion would be hopeless. No post of the Legion would be able to find officers who would have time to do this work. Further, trained workers are required. Workers who know what evidence is required by existing law, and who know by experience how to spend money available for this work to the best advantage. I find that the number of cases now being handled by the local chapter of the Red Cross for disabled service men, who are having difficulty in proving that their disability is a result of their service, is appalling. I believe that all members of the Legion and all service men should give to this campaign."
