A delightful St. Patrick's party was given during the past week by the Allee Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. James Moss, 1503 M avenue.

The rooms of the home were beautifully decorated with green crepe paper entwined about the colonnades from which hung shamrocks, roses, and sweet peas were placed about the room, lending a touch of spring.

Between thirty-five or forty guests were present, and enjoyed a splendid program. Mrs. Ray Fuller sang several songs representing the jazz music and the real music in the home, and the effect each would have.

Mrs. Jasper read an interesting paper on the different kinds of art; Miss Bertha Walsinger gave an article on home reading and Mrs. Hershey from Allee gave a very interesting and instructive talk.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. Gathering at the Country club following the basketball team banquet Thursday night, members of the high school alumni, of the student body and a number of guests, were present at an informal dance given in honor of the lettermen of the Blue and White honor team.

White honorees, dancing began shortly before nine o'clock and continued until the hour of midnight, when those present departed for their homes, acclaiming the affair one of the most delightful of the season. Music was furnished by Abbie Green, piano, Andrew Leney, Jr., cornet, and Kenneth Gekeler, saxophone.

Invitations are out announcing an afternoon bridge party at the Country club for Tuesday, April 3. The ladies giving the party are Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, Mrs. L. F. Dunn, Mrs. C. H. Scanton, and Mrs. Bruce Dennis.

The outstanding event of Easter Monday will be the ball which is to be given at Rex Hall April 2, under the auspices of the Shriner's. The dance promises to exceed all former events given by the organization and a good time is anticipated. All Mazons and their families are cordially invited to attend.

The Marches met in the K. P. hall Wednesday evening and spent a most enjoyable evening. A cleverly arranged program was presented by little folks, consisting of tableaux, instrumental music and recitations in the form of an Easter program.

Miss Lula Foster is the efficient president of the Endeavor.

Mrs. Harry Bouvy returns today from a two-weeks' visit in Portland. She will be accompanied by her house guest, Miss Ruth Zanella.
