

Easter

You Will Need New Clothes

Never in our history have we entered a new season in a condition to render a more satisfactory clothes-service to men and young men than the season of 1923.

THE REASON: The decks are cleared of old merchandise, and we are able to present fresh, new merchandise carefully selected to suit your exacting taste.

Every man, therefore, who desires real fine clothes, to whom it means something to wear some of the best wools that ever came off a loom, who recognizes superior designing and tailoring—to that man we can assure satisfaction to the utmost degree.

"SINGED WINGS"

Love, to her, meant revenge swift and sure, probably death. Why? How? The answers are in the flaming climaxes of this fascinating romance. The drama of a beautiful Spanish dancer, beset with temptations, fighting false love and true alike. Lavish settings and gowns, and a wonder-cast.

WAR ON DRYERS.

MANHATTEN, Ede., Mar. 27.—A proposal has been made to the Master Cotton Spinners Association by British dyers against the action of spinners in sending their goods to Belgium to be dyed. The trade has been affected seriously in Lancashire.

The manufacturers claim they are able to send the goods to Belgium to be dyed and then send them back to England at a lower cost than to have the goods done here, and refuse to change their plans unless the price is decreased.

Correct this sentence: "The wife returned after a week at her mother's and found all the dishes washed and put away."

A most beautiful church wedding occurred Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal church when Miss Donna Violetta Smith became the bride of Donald McIntyre Nichols.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Commodore and has spent most of her life here. She is very popular among the younger set.

The bridal party entered the church to the delightful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Ruth Quigley on the pipe organ, accompanied on the violin by Floyd Smith, brother of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Bernice Lofland, while the groom's man was Park Taylor. Four young men, friends of the contracting party, served as ushers: Raymond Payton, Lawrence Trill, Donald Rohan and T. C. McDonald.

The ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church was read by the Rev. G. H. Quigley.

The church was beautifully decorated with plants and cut flowers.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the brides parents. Mrs. Smith was assisted in caring for the guests and in serving by Miss Harriet Casey, Miss Viola Benjamin and Mrs. Clyde Banting.

The rooms of the home were tastefully decorated with cut flowers, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in all the decorations.

The bride wore an attractive traveling costume, and the happy couple left on the Sunday morning train for Portland and other points in the west. They will make their home for the present in Seattle.

On March 18, at the Presbyterian church in Portland was a pretty and simple wedding, when Miss Estelle Graybill became the bride of Frank W. Rosenbraugh, Dr. Harold J. Bowman officiating.

Miss Graybill is one of La Grande's popular young ladies and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Herion of this city. She finished her education here, entered Oregon Agricultural college, and was a member of Alpha Phi Omega.

Mr. Rosenbraugh is a son of Salem's young business men and is known as Rosenbraugh and Son. He also attended the Oregon Agricultural college and served overseas. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and served as house president last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenbraugh left immediately for Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., and will be home to their friends July 1 and make their home in Salem.

Engles hall is to be the scene of a gayety on April 3, 4, 5 and 6 for on those days the Engles and Neighbors of Woodcraft, two prominent lodges of La Grande, are to hold a four day bazaar in which the usual bazaar offerings will be made to the public. Refreshments will also be served by the two orders and each evening a dance will be a big feature of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Musace of La Grande are new residents of Pendleton. They are domiciled in Apartment 38, Security Apartments. Mr. Musace is employed by Bond Bros., Pendleton East Oregonian.

The Mission Circle of the Baptist church met Friday afternoon at the parsonage for their meeting and mite-box opening. A very pleasant afternoon was spent by all present.

Mrs. F. M. Harper returned last night from La Grande where she had visited friends over the week-end. She reports that the Union county city was hit by a heavy rain Friday night. Pendleton East Oregonian.

If there is no other way to make Alaska's frozen oil fields available, we might hire a few diplomats to warm things up.
