

For E-A-S-T-E-R

Easter is Fashion's own day, the occasion on which you, like all other women, will eagerly pay homage to style by smartling decking yourself in her most distinctive creations and joining the Easter parade. It is a most pleasant task and one made easy by the attractive displays which are assembled here for this fashion event.

Frocks Suits

make a smart bid for the privilege of costuming you on Easter. Indeed we have such wonders it is doubtful if you could make a wiser choice.

whether you think a flaring bolen jacket or one that blouses above a snug hip-band would most suit your fancy, you are certain to find the suits in this group very attractive.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

OFFICE CAT

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?
"My husband acts the perfect bear all the time."
"Mine doesn't. A perfect bear will hug you if given a chance."

More people are pursued by knowledge than are in pursuit of it these days.

They claim gold has been found in Florida, but it may be just some tourist with his mouth open.

Amos Tash broadcasts the following question: "What is the proper procedure when your hostess insists on speaking to you just as you are trying to bite your sandwich?"

Have a care. Too frequent shrug of the shoulders is the shimmy.

THE CHRONIC AILMENT

He filed each contact point, Knocked connections out of joint, Crawled under it and gave the gears a kick.

Almost an hour later Toiled with the carburetor And monkeyed with the starter until sick.

Curse? Gosh, I wish you'd listen As he hammers at that piston! He says so many things he hadn't met.

Then he walks around to prime 'er, And he jiggles with the timer. Later, "Hell, I think I gotta short" With the hammer he will sock 'er. And he'll jerk the pesky choker, And he'll sweat, and rave, and froth to beat the Dutch.

With black grease spots on his britches, He will tamper with the switches. Frantic, he will kick the poor old clutch.

A sailor'd lose his vanity If he heard this man's profanity. As he does a mean contortion with the crank, After endless toil and raving, After hours of fruitless slaving, He finds there's not a drop of gas in the tank.

A La Grande man says keep an eye on the job ahead, but keep the other eye and both hands on the job you have.

The first saxophone was made in 1840 and some of the people haven't seen the joke yet.

HOW TRUE!

One of the greatest signifiers of Nature is a Smart Aleck in eighteen trying to give an impression that he is a Hard Boiled Egg.

A WORTHLESS LOT

Scores of young folks in these days in every district could read ordinary music as readily as they could read a book. Can they do it now?

No, they can't. And they can't spell either, explodes a La Grander. They don't know geography to bound Oregon and when they take a pencil in hand to write it looks like an eel having a fit in a pan of milk. They can't do long division without sticking out their toes, and they can't parse a sentence any more than they could wipe their necks with their elbows. But they know the difference between Babe Ruth and Bebe Daniels and they know all about how to strip a Ford and make it a racer. They know basketball, and they can tell you who is on the all-northwest football team and where to buy boot-leg, cigars and the one about the Scot and the Irishman. A low-down, good for nothing, worthless lot they are—but Lord, how we love 'em.

An apartment building has been discovered in Kansas City bearing the name "Somebody's Inn." Which probably is the unanswerable retort to "nobody home."

Ladies Hats

Made New, Any Color, Day or Night, Water Proof, Does Not Shrink in the Straw, Does Not Make Your Hat Heavy Over 10 Colors and Shades to Choose From. Have Your Hat Air Brushed at small cost at the RICHARDSON'S ART & GIFT SHOP

These points to an early season, 1923 only. The market here last year completed a good run to the month of the census and many thousands of tourists visited this natural wonder during the season. The number is expected to be greater this year.

MARKET STEADY
(By Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Mar. 28.—Cattle steady at a quarter decline late yesterday, choice steers $7.50 to $8.50. Hogs sheep steady. Butter and eggs firm.

Theatrical papers forecast a vogue for Egyptian songs. Perhaps the song-writers can recast their "mammy" songs by just substituting "mummy."

LADD MEN TO BE HOSTS AT PARTY

LADD CANYON, Mar. 28.—Spring like weather is a welcome visitor. The farmers are busy getting their machinery ready for work in the fields and the grass is beginning to put forth its appearance, none too soon to please the stock men.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lofland attended Donna Smith's wedding and reception Saturday night. Messrs. Brock and Morgan of Summerville were business callers in this vicinity Monday.

Marian Miller was unable to return to high school Monday on account of a severe cold. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Miller and Mrs. J. Guy Miller drove to Baker and out to the Jim Brad ranch Sunday with Guy, and inspected their crop of spring lambs.

The men's party will be the means of enjoyment next Saturday evening at Peeler's hall. The ladies are expecting a great feed with much pleasure attached to it, and no doubt they will not be disappointed.

ALL IS WELL AT MEDICAL

MEDICAL SPRINGS, March 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson were dinner guests Friday at the W. Lane home.

H. Maxfield and Eldridge Huffman spent the week-end in Union with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bloom were week-end visitors in Baker. They were accompanied by Mrs. George South. Mrs. South expects to spend a week in Baker shopping and visiting.

Mrs. J. R. Wanker was a Sunday guest for dinner at the Whitten home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Lane went to Baker Monday on business. They expect to be gone several days.

Miss Celina Turner and Nesdon Fay were passengers on Saturday's stage going to Baker.

T. E. Kennedy, well known farmer of the Medical Springs district, is going to Baker to attend the I. O. O. F. lodge Tuesday evening.

Among visitors in Baker Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wanker, Mr. and Mrs. A. Haller.

Nearly every day a large flock of geese pass over the springs. Saturday three large flocks passed over.

Found a Cure for Indigestion

"I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any I have ever used."

"I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to, now," writes Geo. W. Emory, Dock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no poison but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

WHEN THE SHADES ARE DRAWN and the tender ministry of the living must give place to the service of the undertaker, it is a real comfort to surviving friends, to feel that the preparation for burial will be conducted with dignity and proper respect for the lately departed one.

Then, too, Modern Science has found a way through the art of Embalming, not only for removing the peril of contagion, but also of restoring the natural flush of health, so that the latest picture in memory will be pleasant to recall.

This process is a part of our service which we will gladly explain to anyone interested.
