THE SALVATION ARMY—Special services will be observed in the S. A. hall all day Sunday. This being the day we commemorate the resurrection of our Saviour let us make it the happiest day of the year. Sunday morning 11 a. m. a sermon will be delivered by Adj. C. A. Peterson, also musical numbers will be given. Sunday school 2 p. m. Let all the children come. A contest is on between the pink and blue. When this contest is ended a picnic will be given to all those who attend Sunday school regularly. There are classes for all ages with good teachers. Sunday evening 8 p. m. An after service will be held closing up our missionary work. Special Easter musical numbers will be given, both solos and instrumental. Let's go to the house of God. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend any or all these services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—The services of the day will begin with a sunrise prayer meeting commencing at 30. The Intermediate C. E. will be at this meeting to all who come. Bible School meets at 9:45. The afternoon will be occupied by a program given by the Primary Department. We are expecting our attendance to be the largest in the history of the school. Preaching service begins at 11 promptly. The special song features will be an anthem by the chorus and a solo by Marguerite Carney. The many ends of Miss Carney will appreciate this opportunity of hearing and seeing her, and the public will have a privilege of hearing one of the best singers of our state. In the afternoon we will have the baptismal service for the large number to have made confession of faith in the pre-Easter work. The pastor will give a short study of the Spirit of Purpose of Baptism. This service will be held at 2:30. All are invited. The evening preaching hour will feature several song numbers. T. R. Maxwell will sing "Tell Me About the Savior," by Cora Ma, and will also appear in a duet number with Mrs. Oma Lapham. In the morning the sermon will center about the Meaning of Resurrection in the evening will give the pastor's reasons for believing that Jesus did arise from the dead. We extend the public a cordial invitation to all the services.—O. W. Jones, minister.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Easter services will be in order of the day. The Bible school session at 10:00 will be of special interest and attractiveness. Members are urged to attend. At 11 o'clock hour, Easter sermon with song with baptisms and reception of members will be the program.

gram. Mr. Andrew Loney will contribute a cornet solo with pipe organ and violin accompaniment. The chorus choir will render an Easter Anthem. At the evening hour, a chorus choir of twenty-four voices under the direction of Mrs. Sherwood Williams will sing the beautiful Easter cantata "The Living Christ," by Windermere. The special parts will be sung by Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Aldrich, Fredericka Schilke, Mrs. Nelson, G. L. Dutton, S. Williams, Paul Knautz, Mr. Alford, Claude Cooper, and Mr. Quigley. The complete program may be found in the advertising columns of this paper. The musical programs given in this church this year have been of exceptional quality, but it is the opinion of those qualified to judge that this will be better than any that have preceded it. And all are invited to hear it of course. Epworth League at the 8:30 hour with young people in charge. Elvora Pines, president.—G. H. Quigley, minister.

CHURCH OF OUR LADY OF THE VALLEY—Easter services. The most beautiful and impressive service of the Catholic Faith will be held this Easter Sunday. The artistic Gothic altars will be elaborately decorated with a profusion of Easter lilies, white carnations and lighted tapers. A chorus of trained vested boys will assist in the sanctuary at each service. As usual, a capacity attendance is expected, and strangers and those not worshipping elsewhere are particularly invited to attend. At the 8 o'clock Mass, the S. H. Academy orchestra and the Children's Choir, consisting of more than 100 voices will render the musical program. The hymns are well selected and breathe the inspiring Easter spirit of the church. At the 10:30 Mass, the Parish Choir will render the classical composition of Leonard's Mass in E flat with a beautiful Offertory with violin accompaniment. This service will be particularly attractive, not only by reason of the splendid music but also on account of the sublime ceremonies attending the same. The evening service will be at 7:30 and constitute a very fitting close of the great Easter. A concise sermon, replete with solid thought, will be given at each service. A cordial welcome is extended to all.—A. F. Loeser, pastor.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Sunday school hour will be given over to the Easter program. Miss Mildred Lovett has prepared the intermediate students for their part. The beginners have been drilled by Miss Ethel Brown. Mrs. C. E. Happersett, director of music will have charge of the music for the church service. There will be some special numbers. Baptismal service at the close of the morning worship. Sermon subject, "The Easter Spirit." Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. They always bring a good program. Several of them belong to the High School Glee club and are good singers. They give some special. We hope for an extra Sunday evening. Sermon Sunday evening "The Rose of Sharon." The Easter music and message will prevail. Come and help make the day all it should be. The Roll Call Dinner was a success. Many speeches including one by C. D. Huffman on individual responsibility of each church member for the success of the work in every way. The clerk of the church was instructed to formulate a letter and send to each member urging the hearty co-operation of all in the whole task before us in building up the Spiritual Kingdom of Christ.—Albert Ross Sitton, pastor.

ISLAND CITY COMMUNITY CHURCH—Easter is expected to be a big day—joyful and helpful. The sunrise prayer meeting and breakfast will be at the church. Miss Hilda Blokland will be the leader. Sunday school will feature a brief Easter program, after a brief session of the classes. Text for the Easter sermon, "What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called the Christ?" There will be no meeting of the Bible class. Miss Blanche Clark will

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—Easter will bring a splendid opportunity to the folks of this community to avail themselves of the worship hours at our church which will be at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., the latter hour being the special service held annually under the auspices of the Knights Templar at which time the entire community is invited to unite with them in the celebration of the Easter Day. At the morning hour the regular service of the church will be held at which time a large vested choir of boys will assist the augmented choir which will consist of Mrs. A. L. Richardson, director, Mrs. Joseph Carr, Mrs. W. H. Bohnekamp, Jr., Mrs. Frank Hayes, Stuart Bennett, Frank Hayes, Ed McKinley, T. K. Bellamy, and Dr. E. P. Mossman. Following is the order of service for the morning worship: Processional; Doxology; Invocation; Gloria; Responsive Reading; Congregational Reading; Congregational Hymn; Scripture Lesson; Anthem, "The Choir Angelic," by Hanscom; Prayer and response by choir; Easter Offering and Offertory; Easter Message; Violin Solo, J. L. Lindsay; Anthem, "Hosanna," by Granier; Solo by Mrs. A. L. Richardson; Recessional. Let us all remember that Easter testifies to that resurrection morning that opened the tomb of rock, swallowed up death in victory and brought life and immortality to light. We invite you to worship with us on Sunday.—W. C. Ross, minister.

You Will Want Your Fordson Tractor Early

Everything points to the greatest shortage of Ford products this year that has ever existed.

Never before has the demand been so great.

You will want a Fordson Tractor early—here is one product you cannot wait for—when the weather opens up you will need it.

You will want it for plowing, seeding, cultivating—and all your other work. Already it has proved the greatest help to profitable farming that has ever been offered to you. And at $395 f. o. b. Detroit, the price is so low that you lose money every day you are without a Fordson. To get delivery you must order early.

There are no reserve stocks among our dealers—our production capacity, great as it is, will not enable us to build up a reserve.

It must be a case of "first come, first served" and the only way in which you can protect yourself is to list your order with a Ford Dealer immediately.

By taking advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery, you will be assured of having your Fordson when you need it.
