The list of art work we are showing is almost endless. Such as lunch sets, pillow cases, bed spreads, buffet sets, aprons, etc. Things that even the amateur needleworker can make in a very short time are bridge sets, applique tea aprons or fancy colored luncheon sets, so attractive for impromptu affairs. Only the simplest stitches that "go rapidly" are required to make these articles. Directions and thread to use with each piece. You may choose the materials and "learn how" in our Fancy Goods section.

Musical people of La Grande will be pleased to know that Mrs. Jessie A. Hoskins, of Baker, will be at the Foley hotel all day Friday to interview those who desire to take up advanced musical instruction. Mrs. Hoskins has been recognized since her first year's residence in Eastern Oregon as one of the outstanding teachers of the country. She is a life accredited teacher of the state of Oregon, a graduate of Stuttgart, Germany, possesses a certificate from the chairman of the executive committee on the study of voice of the National Federated clubs along with several others from the American post graduate courses. She is a pupil of Schulze, a disciple of the famous Garcia.

Mrs. Hoskins is quite well known in La Grande and the fact that she has decided to give some of her time each week to musical circles of this city will be of great interest.

Friday evening was the time of a very pleasant party at the Alice hall. The party was held for the purpose of awarding the Knight Banners of Modern Health Crusade to those who had earned them.

The evening was spent in playing games. At the close of the evening the pins were awarded to the following: Melvia Buchanan, Gladys Stewart, Claud Stewart, Walter Phillips, Clark Ruckman, Cleland and Thomas Walinger, Clarence, Floyd and Merton Berry, Marie and Lyle Ledbetter, Willis and Wesley Hershey and Neuben Wills.

Friday evening, April 20th, the school will hold a stunt show in the school house.

Chapter I, P. E. O., met at the home of Mrs. Vincent Palmer Friday afternoon, April 6.

After the usual business meeting, an interesting and instructive discussion on Modern Art was given by Mrs. Mary E. Wright, assisted by Mrs. Cornelia Mosman, who presented a number of beautiful slides in connection with the subject.

At the close of the program, refreshments were served by the hostess.

The American Legion dance at Rex hall last evening was well attended and the spirit of hospitality by the Legion boys, so pronounced in all their La Grande social functions, was deeply enjoyed by the large number of guests.

The dance was given by the boys for the purpose of raising funds to liquidate the expense of planting trees on Victory Way. It was a voluntary offer on the part of the Legion for the members felt such a pride in the community undertaking that they requested the Neighborhood club to grant them the privilege of superintending and arranging the expense of the planting. Charles R. Harding, service man, was the active head of the planting for the Legion and the dance last night was a fitting climax for yesterday's holiday feature which marked the dedication of the Victory Way.

The Westminster Guild held a very pleasant meeting Monday evening when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Bingner.

Following the regular business meeting, an interesting program was rendered, and Mrs. Duryea gave an excellent talk.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. J. L. Gibson returned to her home in Pendleton this morning after a few days spent here visiting friends.

Mrs. La Follette of Weiser, Idaho, arrived in La Grande Tuesday where she will visit for several days.

Mrs. T. M. Myers of Enterprise, passed through La Grande last evening on her way to Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Colton Eberhard will entertain the Kaffee Klatch Friday evening at the Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Seitz beautifully entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Forrest Ivanhoe yesterday.

Mrs. Forrest Ivanhoe was a dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson on her recent hurried visit to La Grande.

The next committee for the country club dance will be the following: Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pouch, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bunting, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Decious, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dutton, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Woodberry, Dr. and Mrs. Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bonhoe, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohmenkamp, Dr. and Mrs. Biggers, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kiddle, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoddard, Mr. Ralph Haron and Mr. Homer Leffel. The committee named above is the last on the series which have been held the last season. A meeting will be held in the near future to determine the date of the dance. As soon as this series is completed it is planned to begin another one and one dance will be held each month throughout the year. Probably no social event of the club has been enjoyed so much as the dances which have been held throughout the winter.

Correct this sentence: "No, John," said the wife, "I positively refuse to get a new hat until you throw away that old overcoat and get another."

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore, lame back. It can get hurt you, and it certainly ends the torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

A BOLD PEASANTRY

Louisville Courier-Journal: A duchess seeing America was being shown a Western ranch.

"Where are your peasants?" she inquired.

Just then a cowboy rode up. "There's one of them," answered her host. "But you'd better not call him that."

Emotional insanity may disturb the mental processes, but it doesn't seem to affect the aim.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients in a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyley's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyley's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

New Ideas in Summer Shoes For Men

If indications mean anything, this summer is going to see more men than ever wearing low shoes.

A man used to be considered effeminate if he wore them; now he's looked upon as an old fogey if he doesn't.

We have a fine collection of the newest oxfords here at $5.00 to $7.50.
