ANITA STEWART IN A SURPRISE-FINISH STORY
"Rose o' the Sea" Dramatizes New England Seacoast and City Tentements.

The flavor of romance permeates the Anita Stewart production "Rose o' the Sea," which will be the star's First National attraction at the Arcade today and Tuesday, according to the advance opinions that have been received on the picture.

So much has been written of unexpected conclusions that the phrase has commenced to have an over-worn sound; but Anita Stewart herself is the sponsor of the statement that the conclusion of her latest picture which, if not a distinct surprise to the majority of the audience, will at least be out of the run of the customary motion picture fadeouts.

"Rose o' the Sea" will prove to be one of the most lovable characters that has ever made a sale before a floral display or trail in the silk slippers of the daisies. The wife of a girl who is picked up off a sinking steamer finds her way to the city's turmoil and bustles and, thru a coincidence of adventures, becomes feted and dined by the wealthiest aristocrats of the town.

Under such conditions an immature girl might well be pardoned for losing her head; but Rose shows the calibre of which she is made when she refuses countless offers to marry and makes an ultimate decision that is as great a surprise to the man involved as it is to the audience.

The part of Rose is one to which Miss Stewart is peculiarly adapted by her naive charm. Playing opposite her in the leading role is Rudolph Cameron, while the remainder of the supporting cast includes Thomas Holding, Margaret Landis, Kate Lester, Halton Cooley, John P. Lockney and Charles Belcher.

An education comedy, "Dog Sense," is also a part of the program.

SHERRYS TODAY AND TOMORROW
A little white kitten is one of the stars of D. W. Griffith's master film play "Way Down East." It never fails to win a laugh at every performance, at the Sherry theatre where this production is having a run of three days.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens naturally and evenly that nobody can tell if it has been applied—it's so easy to use.
You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

The Cricket Flat Grange of Elgin met Friday evening, April 13, and among the other questions discussed was the question of the rural roads and this grange like the other six granges of the county, are opposed to the county paying back to certain districts bank funds as this would deprive other districts of needed road funds and it is the opinion of the members of the grange that the full 70 per cent of the money should be spent in each district as prescribed by law. The grange instructed the secretary to write the county court in regard to the matter. The county fair was discussed and the members asked to begin planning to taking exhibits and the Home Economics committee was instructed to investigate the putting in of a special exhibit and rest room for the accommodation of the visitors on the fair grounds. Delegates will be sent to the meeting of the Pleasant Grove Grange of Summerville on Saturday evening, April 21, when a number will be given the inaugural work. Prices on a number of farm necessities were discussed. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller were elected alternates to the state grange; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Witherspoon being the regular delegates. Lunch was served by the ladies under the direction of Mrs. Wm. Miller of the Home Economics Committee. in the days preceding the Civil war, when he stumped the state in his cause. He commanded a brigade in action in the Mexican war. He later removed to Oregon where he represented that state in the United States senate.

"A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism.
I handed him a bottle of Chamber-it freely," says C. P. Rayder, Patton Mill, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment; I want it in the house all the time for it

LADD SAWMILL
IS OPERATING
(Special to The Observer) LADD CANYON, April 16.—The ladd sawmill up in the canyon resumed operations last Monday after standing idle for a few months. However, logging operations have been going on up there all winter and the box factory has been running all the time with a big force of men, making this a very enterprising place.
The road leading from the highway at the box factory to the saw mill is now being graded preparatory to traveling some time soon. This stretch of road gets nearly impass-ible during bad weather and when graveled will enable the saw mill owners to get their lumber down here much quicker and easier and one lumber hauler says the Ladd canyon farmers will appreciate a market road, being able to get over it to town any time of the year.
The Tucker brothers, George and Johnnie, have purchased themselves a brand new touring car. William Banton is also driving a new car which he purchased some time ago.
The ladies of the Get-Together club held a very pleasant meeting Thursday afternoon when they were entertained at the home of Mrs.
Susie Shambaugh. The usual business meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. Clyde Hopkins, how much the Ladies were quickly passed in needle work and social conversation. Mrs. Standard concluded it by the serving of a very tasty two-course luncheon.
They will meet again on the 26th of April with Mrs. W. O. Sherwood.
Dr. W. H. Ewin of Portland was a recent visitor here for several days with his sons, Sherrill and Henry Ewin. The doctor enjoys being on the farm so much that he always deems going back to his old practice in Portland, which he has followed for years.
James S. Mills of Edmonton, Canada, visited three days last week here at the home of his uncle, Chas.
E. Grady. This was Mr. Mills' first visit here since he was just a child and he was very much impressed with the Grande Ronde valley, but was anxious to get back home again.
